

Parents oppose 'busing' in Madison integration plan

By LISA LUTZ
of the Press-Record

Expressions of anger and opposition were voiced Wednesday and Tuesday nights at public desegregation hearings for the parents of children who would be bused, if the desegregation plans are accepted by Madison School District 12.

Alfred Johnson asked "When are our questions going to be answered?"

After the board has reviewed the plans and reached a decision, questions may be heard at a regular school board meeting, it was noted.

Parents of children at Blair and Harris schools expressed opposition to busing proposals, noting the convenience of having their children attend school in their own community.

"Why should my son be bused five miles across town when I live three blocks from the school," one parent from the Harris school, which is 27 percent black, she stated.

One plan, presented to the board by the volunteer advisory committee, is to have the school across town to attend Harris, and all third graders to attend Blair. An alternative plan is for kindergarten and first graders to go to the Blair school, and second and third grade students attend school at Harris.

Although neither of these proposals were endorsed by the parents, some parents did offer suggestions which were in addition to the proposed plans. The Rev. Harold Wilson suggested a rotating system. The children could attend the school across town to achieve the needed integration during the morning session then be bused back to their neighborhood school for the afternoon session of classes. "Let's meet each other half way," Wilson stated.

Evelyn Mason, a Harris mother, stated that kindergarten children should not be bused, and suggested second graders should be divided equally between both schools, and to send all third graders to Harris.

Since busing would mean additional cost, fears that taxes would increase also were presented. Some of the parents felt that when increased busing costs are in effect, the quality of education would be diminished.

Although the purpose for the hearings was to obtain public input, the board's refusal to answer questions angered many of the parents.

"This is not a discussion or a question and answer period," Dymas said as questions were continually directed at the board. "This hearing is for public input," he maintained.

Persons attending the Tuesday meeting complained that they were not informed of the desegregation proposals properly, although the full plan was published in a previous issue of the Press-Record.

When a need for another meeting between the board and constituents was expressed, board members informed them that all regular school board meetings are open to the public. It is possible that the board will agree to another meeting to answer questions (Continued on Page 5)

City approves GC annexations

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

"I found myself in a very embarrassing position last week. I would like not to be put in that position again," Alderman Sharon Perjak, chairman of the Granite City Council's planning and zoning committee, told the council Tuesday night in reaction to publicity questioning whether the city council was hastily annexing one home for political reasons, bypassing normal procedures.

May 26, the council voted to annex four parcels of property on Westmoreland Drive, including the home of an applicant for a vacancy on the Granite City Board of Education. The candidate had to become a city resident before June 9 in order to qualify for that post.

The annexations were given final approval Tuesday night, meeting that deadline.

The Press-Record May 28 pointed out that in order to annex the three parcels on the north side of Westmoreland Drive, which were not contiguous to the city boundary, the city put together an annexation package including one vacant lot on the south side of the street, serving as a "link" between the city boundary and the three houses on the other side of the street.

The proposed annexation package was never reviewed by the city's Plan Commission, which is standard procedure, although such a review is not legally required.

The council voted to annex the properties May 26, but were told the annexations would have to be returned to the council in ordinance form for final passage this week.

Tuesday night, Mrs. Perjak said, "I would like to request that in future annexations, the planning and zoning committee know at least three days ahead of time the address and the person who lives there." She later stated that at the May 26 meeting, she had only legal descriptions of the properties involved and did not know whose properties were being annexed or why Plan Commission review was being bypassed.

After lengthy discussion, the council approved the annexations of 2501, 2509, 2525 and 2530 Westmoreland Drive, but not unanimously. Mrs. Perjak and three other aldermen cast negative votes, but the annexations were approved 10 to 4.

Properties annexed were those of Richard Chodich (2501), Edward Dewey Melton (2509), Robert Hildebrand (2525) and the vacant lot owned by Randall Sigle at 2530 Westmoreland.

Melton is among 10 candidates for a vacancy on the school board, which must be filled by a resident of the city.

The annexations do not include the Sigle home, which is next to the vacant lot, the Press-Record has learned.

Alderman Paul Flisk, chairman of the council's ordinance committee, read the annexation ordinance and moved to suspend the rules and place it on final passage Tuesday night, "as we've done on all other annexations."

Mayor Paul Schuler responded, "All I have to say is we don't make the appointment to the school board. We don't have anything to do with it."

May up sewage treatment rates

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

Granite City officials are discussing the possibility of raising the city's $13 per quarter sewage treatment charge to aid the department which will have an apparent deficit at the end of this fiscal year.

At Tuesday night's Granite City Council meeting, Alderman Warren Decatur, chairman of the council's pollution plan committee, explained that the committee had just concluded a meeting with Terrence McMillan, superintendent of the city's sewage treatment plant, and had found it impossible, under current proposals, to prepare a balanced budget. "It looks like we are going to come up $66,000 in the hole," Decatur estimated.

"I'm convinced right now that the sewage treatment plant is in trouble again. I'm afraid we are going to have to raise fees again, but not as high as the $7 last time."

"We also are looking at attrition of the employees there as they quit or retire. We will have another meeting two weeks from tonight (June 16) and we will let you know what happens," Decatur explained.

Asked if the city has received any money yet from the new county sewers using the treatment plant, Decatur admitted that no fees had yet been received from the county.

The county sewer committee is expected to approve its first quarterly treatment payment at the June 10 committee meeting. The amount is not known, but by ordinance, users of the new county sewers must pay $18 per quarter (each three months) to the city.

It is estimated that there will be 4,000 users on the new county sewers by Jan. 1, producing $72,000 a quarter for the city's treatment plant. The first payment is expected to be about one-fifth of that, officials estimate.

Funds to be raised from the county sewers, however, are being considered in the sewage treatment budget for the fiscal year which began June 1.

The problem with preparing a balanced budget for the treatment plant (which is supposed to be self-supporting) comes from inflation and city proposals to remove some treatment-related expenses from the city's general fund and force the sewage treatment plant to pay for them.

One example Decatur cited was the municipal retirement fund, which will cost $106,000 this fiscal year. (MRF has been paid from the general fund in the past but the general fund now is

See progress in synchronizing GC traffic flow

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Progress may be made this year in expediting motor vehicle traffic flow and reducing travel costs, members of the Granite City Rotary prayer breakfast group said after their June session yesterday.

City officials, the Chamber of Commerce traffic committee and Rotarians are meeting and discussing ways of helping each other improve traffic conditions, it was noted.

Methods of obtaining improvement may include greater reliance on overall planning—utilizing still-valid ideas and findings from a series of past studies, rather than absorbing the delays and costs associated with new studies.

Stop signs—considered necessary in certain instances and unnecessary in others—are a major cost factor in this era of high fuel prices and steadily rising vehicle purchase and maintenance costs, Wednesday's discussion brought out.

Estimates indicated that each stop adds about three to five cents to the cost of operating an auto and 10 to 12 cents to the cost of driving a diesel-powered truck.

Although there often is intense pressure by safety-conscious families to order added stops, pedestrian safety and traffic efficiency can best be achieved by coordinating such decisions with the traffic committee and city traffic engineer, members of the breakfast gathering commented.

Goals mentioned include: Traffic routes and controls that create a logical pattern, with through traffic allowed to bypass congested areas.

Coordination of stop sign placement and removal proposals, so that their relationship and cumulative impact can be evaluated. The opposite of this ideal was seen as haphazard installation of controls, breeding disrespect for and disobedience to traffic regulations.

Routing of most trucks from the 19th Street overpass (expected to attract previous 19th, 20th Street and Niedringhaus Avenue traffic) away from the downtown business district.

Reversal of one-way Benton and State streets.

Synchronization of present and future traffic lights along Nameoki Road to encourage rather than impede traffic flow.

Reduction of access—from turns and driveways—along major thoroughfares.

A rear entrance or access road to the Crossroads Plaza, Nameoki Village and American Village shopping centers.

An overpass at the East 23rd Street and Route 162 railroad crossing near Lake School.

Increased planning related to Maryville Road, described as now having successive speed zones of 30, 35, 25 and 35 miles per hour.

Greater public awareness of nationally recognized standards for safe and effective control of traffic.

Area traffic deaths up 45% over same period last year

By HARRY BARNES
of the Press-Record

The ratio of traffic fatalities continued to increase in the Quad-City area during May after four traffic deaths increased to 16 the total number of such fatalities so far this year.

The total of 16 fatalities is an increase of 45 percent over the 11 accidental deaths at the same time last year. During 1980 a total of 26 fatalities occurred in the area in the 12-month period, compared to 13 traffic deaths in all of 1979.

In the five months of this year, four traffic deaths have been reported in each of the months of January, April and May. Two each were reported during February and March.

In comparison, last year's records show five fatalities during January, none in February or March, four in April and two in May.

There were 41 injury accidents in the area last month, with 60 persons injured in those accidents. These do not include accidents in which only property damage was involved.

This brought to 168 the total number of injury accidents during the five months of the year, with 257 persons injured in those accidents, compared to 159 injury accidents and 225 persons injured in the same period a year ago.

Traffic statistics show 28 accidents with 42 injured and four fatalities in January; 30 accidents with 52 injured and two fatalities in February; 26 accidents and 39 injured with two fatalities in March; 43 accidents, 64 injured and four fatalities in April, and 41 accidents with 61 injured and four fatalities in May.

Assessing praised, criticized

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record
(Second of a series)

Madison County State's Attorney Donald Weber is not the only one critical of the county's 1970s property assessment program.

Policies and actions have been assailed by Terry Schmidt of Granite City, a former county assessment employee, and by Terry W. Francis of Glen Carbon, a member of the Board of Review, until May, according to records of the Illinois Law Enforcement Department's Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI).

Work by the Board and Review and by Supervisor of Assessments James Barton has been strongly defended by Mrs. Marilyn Richey of Godfrey. A current employee of the assessment office, she is the daughter of the previous assessment official, the late Dale Hill.

Schmidt told the DCI that he "worked at the Madison County assessment office as a statistical director from 1971 until March 1979, when he was asked to resign because of various internal conflicts with supervisory personnel in Barton's office."

"According to Schmidt, it was part of (Continued on Page 7)

Drug abuse threatens blindness

Drug addicts can now add another hazard to their perilous habit—the threat of blindness.

So says Dr. Morton F. Goldberg, Professor and Head, Department of Ophthalmology, University of Illinois, who has, in his words, "been struck by the number of tragic cases of drug addiction by individuals who self-administer drugs intravenously that have come to our attention."

The problem, according to Dr. Goldberg, occurs because the drugs are mixed up in talcum powder, which is then filtered rather poorly through cigarette filters or cotton. These filtering procedures are very inefficient, so that the individual eventually injects large amounts of talc into his own veins. The talc is eventually carried by the bloodstream to the retina of the eye, where the talc particles lodge in very small blood vessels and block off the blood supply.

Dr. Goldberg reports that Professor Lee Jampol of his department recently recreated this disease in experimental monkeys by repeatedly injecting talc in their veins. Professor Jampol's findings have been presented at meetings of the Association for Research Vision and Ophthalmology and the Retina Society.

"Drug abusers," says Dr. Goldberg, "need to be alerted to this added risk to their general health; namely, the risk of blindness. Once the retinal tissue is killed off by the poor blood supply, there is no treatment that can restore it to normal function."

Another drug-related problem (alcohol) is also of growing concern to Dr. Goldberg and his staff. This particular problem is identified medically as Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, a rather common set of congenital abnormalities caused by the ingestion of six (or more) alcoholic drinks per day by any pregnant woman. Abnormalities in 20 infants evaluated by Dr. Marilyn Miller of the University's Department of Ophthalmology, ranged from droopy eyelids, cross-eyes to wall-eyes, and amblyopia to mental retardation.

"Fetal Alcohol Syndrome is obviously a preventable form of congenital blindness as well as of mental retardation," Dr. Goldberg says. "Pregnant women need to be warned of the danger to their unborn."

GC Council holds union request at bay again

Once again, the Granite City Council has stalled a request from the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Council 31, that it be recognized as the bargaining agent for about 20 city employees, mostly clerical workers.

The union had sought recognition before the April city election, but the council's negotiating committee refused to discuss the matter, postponing it until after the election.

AFSCME business agent Bob Brown was present at Tuesday night's Granite City Council meeting and asked that the union be recognized. He submitted a recognition agreement for the council to approve. The agreement would call for the city to recognize AFSCME as bargaining agent for employees in the engineering building, zoning office, police department, pollution control department, sewage treatment plant, city ambulance department, billing, the treasurer's office and the city clerk's office.

Categories of jobs to be covered would include secretaries, police dispatchers, deputy city clerk, secretary clerk, office workers in the sewage treatment plant, office clerk, payroll clerk, sewage treatment clerk and office workers.

Alderman Paul Fisk said he has studied the agreement and concluded, "Some departments, I am sure, will have to be taken out." He said he does not believe the deputy city clerk, Charlotte Sire, qualifies to join, since she is appointed and holds her job by ordinance.

One employee of the sewage treatment plant already is covered by the Operating Engineers, which would prohibit her from joining AFSCME, Fisk contended.

Alderman Carl Kittel, who is on the council's negotiating committee, indicated that the committee has too many unions to meet with now. "It doesn't make good sense to just ask for more work," he said.

Brown said he has signed pledge cards from 19 of approximately 21 persons who fall into those job descriptions. He has offered to have an impartial person inspect the cards and verify that they are official.

Fisk contended that of those who have signed pledge cards, "Some of the people are beginning to get second thoughts. I think we should put this on the back burner...get our act together and get together with our department heads and see what is going on."

At Fisk's suggestion, the proposed recognition agreement was referred to the council's negotiating committee for study and a recommendation.

Behind-mill reunion set

The behind-the-Mill reunion being planned by a committee of former residents of that area is still progress and will be held on June 14 at noon at the St. Louis Area Support Center, formerly Granite City Army Depot.

Those serving on the committee include Joe Crnkovich, chairman, and Harvey Smallie, Isabelle Brisky Crnkovich, Ann Mega, Casmer Skubish, Emma Kibort Jakich, Dorothy Timko Lesko and Helen Skubish Todoroff.

For further information, those to contact are Joe Crnkovich, 878-4009, Harvey Smallie, 878-4281, or Helen Todoroff, 877-0677.

The chairman noted that an effort is being made by the committee members to contact all former and present residents by telephone. It is requested that each family bring his food, beverages, folding chairs, and portable tables to the picnic grounds. Barbeque grills will be available.

Residents are also being asked to bring any old photos, stories or memorabilia to share with others," the committee added.

5.14 inches of rain hits area in May

In contrast to earlier "drought" months in which as little as .52 of an inch of rain fell, the month of May brought 5.14 inches of rain to the Quad-Cities area.

Records compiled by the Press-Record show that rain fell in this area on 16 days during the month with 2.66 inches falling on one day—May 18—in a storm that flooded streets, hindered motorists and caused some property damage.

The rains during May went a long way toward relieving the drought that occurred through most of last year, which ended with precipitation 10 inches below normal.

Several drenching rains during the month brought both good news and bad news to farmers who had been complaining over the lack of rainfall. While the rainfall relieved drought conditions, it also made the fields too wet in which to do the spring planting. As a result, crops are now late in being planted.

The 5.14 inches of rainfall last month compares with 2.43 inches that fell in the same month a year ago. Normal for the month of May is 3.73 inches.

Last month's precipitation still left the area slightly short of the normal fall for this time of the year. As of May 31, a total of 11.88 inches of rain had been recorded in the area, according to the Chain of Rocks locks where weather records are maintained for the Army Corps of Engineers.

Normal for the year to May 31 is 13.80 inches, which leaves the area only 1.9 inches below normal.

Last month started with only .02 of an inch precipitation on May 1. Another .06 of an inch fell on May 5, followed on May 6 with .55 of an inch and on May 11 by .42 of an inch. Another .32 of an inch of rain fell on May 14 and on May 15 the locks recorded .05 of an inch.

The heavy storm struck the area on May 18, dropping a total of 2.66 inches over a 24-hour period, and this was followed on May 19 by another .35 of an inch—a total of 3.31 inches over two days.

A fall of .03 of an inch was recorded on May 20, followed by another .31 of an inch on May 23, .15 of an inch on May 24 and .03 of an inch May 25. Precipitation on May 26 measured .10 of an inch, followed by .05 of an inch on May 27 and .07 of an inch on May 31.

The 5.14 inches of precipitation last month was only 1.55 inches less than the 6.69 inches that fell over the first four months of the year.

PROGRAM SUNDAY
The public is being invited to see a 30-minute slide presentation, "Yesterday in Alton," by Mrs. Carmel W. Aenn, a local historian, at the Madison County Historical Museum, 719 N. Main St., Edwardsville, Sunday, June 7, at 1:30 p.m.
Seating will be limited to 50. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Tips for burglary prevention

Home burglaries in cities and throughout the county rose 15 percent in 1980. This is increasing the national average to more than one burglary every 15 seconds, according to law enforcement agencies.
The same situation is true in Granite City. Chief Ronald Veizer said today in announcing that June is Burglary Prevention Month. "As a rule, burglaries increase when the economy levels out, and this is aggravated by the high cost of gold and silver that is stimulating home break-ins," said Chief Veizer. "The increase in working wives has made empty homes and apartments on workdays easier targets for burglars."

Even mild weather has an impact.
"We are noticing, too, that there is an increasing number of garage burglaries and we are reminding citizens to keep garage doors closed at all times," he added.
"Failure to practice the fundamental techniques of home protection was largely responsible for the 519 burglaries committed in our city last year. Most people did not intentionally invite intruders to ransack their home, but they might as well have hung up a sign saying, 'No one's home. Burglars welcome.'"

"A stroll around your neighborhood any day will tell you at a glance who is away — porches and yards will be cluttered with circulars and there may be an accumulation of milk bottles on the stoop, an unkempt lawn, an empty garage with the door open or a bulging mailbox. All of these are tips-offs that will be said, 'No one's home' to anyone canvassing the neighborhood," Veizer said.

"In the evening, most empty homes can be spotted too — just look for the dark houses. It is a known fact that light is one of the best deterrents to crime, yet most homeowners go out for an evening and leave their homes completely dark. If they will go off for a weekend or vacation and leave the same light burning day and night. No light at all, or a light burning continuously, is a good giveaway that no one is home," he continued.

A simple, but effective means of having light in your home every evening, is by connecting a time-all automatic timing device to one or two lamps. Such a timer will turn a lamp on early in the evening, then turn it off several hours later. With lights turning on and off during the evening hours it will give the appearance someone is home and may avert a possible burglary attempt, the chief noted.

Chief Veizer listed precautions for homeowners to avoid burglaries.
1—Close and lock all doors, including porch, basement and garage. Use pin-tumbler cylinder locks on outside entrances and safety latches on the windows.
2—Connect a lamp to a time-all automatic timer to turn lights in the home on and off each evening. Since sound is a deterrent, connect a radio or television to the timer.
3—Protect all doors and windows with inexpensive, portable burglary alarms which sound whenever someone attempts to break in.

4—Light up porches and yards with outdoor lights to increase the likelihood that an attempted burglary would be seen. These lights can also be timer-controlled, if desired.
5—Be sure all screens are fastened from the inside.
6—Never leave valuables lying around, keep them in a safety deposit box.
7—Notify the police department when you'll be

'81 French rendezvous this weekend

The 12th annual Fort de Chartres rendezvous is set for June 6 and 7. It is an authentic re-enactment of a traditional French rendezvous — a gathering of trappers, hunters, traders, settlers, militia and military to trade items, compete in tests of skill, and enjoy carousing.

The massive, nationally known event recreates the 18th Century atmosphere of rendezvous with appropriately garbed buckskinners, craftspeople, and members of re-activated military units.

Outside the fort's walls, camping and trading will be done as they once occurred in early French Illinois.

Crafts of all kinds will be demonstrated — trading and bartering of wares, basketweaving, candle dipping, lace making, scrimshaw, wine making, wood carving, bead and quill sewing, gunsmithing, chair canning, schernschneite, dulcimer construction, hide tanning, woodworking, tin-smithing, cordwainage, bee keeping, pewter-smithing, herb lore, flax breaking, and weaving, to name just a few.

Music will fill the air with a precision fife and drum corps, marching drum and bagpipes.
Musicians will play traditional French tunes on zithers and fiddles, La Guineuse from Prairie du Rocher will sing French songs.

Childgrove Country Dancers will perform twice daily, playing French tunes on flute, rhythm bones, guitar and fiddle, and they invite spectators to learn folk dances.

Children will be kept busy with early French contests and games, and an 18th Century puppet show.
Many people view and compete in muzzle-loading flintlock rifle and musket contests, and knife and tomahawk competition and a military teammatch will be held. New this year will be live cannon firing demonstrations, on Saturday.
Admission is free. Fort de Chartres is located four miles west of Prairie du Rocher on route 155.

STATE ENVIRONMENTAL DIRECTOR RESIGNING
Governor James R. Thompson on Tuesday accepted the resignation of Michael P. Maury, as director of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, effective July 30.
Maury has served as IEPA Director since August 1977. Prior to being appointed director, he served as manager of environmental programs for the agency and manager of the Division of Water Pollution Control and Laboratory Services. He has served in the IEPA since 1972. Maury will be joining a private environmental consulting firm in Pennsylvania.

1 Thessalonians 5:17 "Pray without ceasing."

Praying men mean more than men who say prayers. Prayer is a mighty force that moves God and men. Prayer keeps the door to Heaven open to believers. It gives Holy Boldness to approach the throne of grace! It lets us find help in time of need.

Pray without ceasing. If you feel that God hasn't answered your prayer, don't quit praying! Don't give up! God hears and answers prayer. It could be possible that determination is what you need more than anything else.

Be faithful. Be persistent. Be humble. Be sure your answer is coming.

Pray, Today.

GC Council to meet in special session tonight

A special meeting of the Granite City Council has been called for 7 tonight in the mayor's conference room of city hall to discuss two matters.

The first is a proposed business license ordinance, setting license fees and detailing what types of businesses will be required to obtain a city business license.

Second is the reorganization of several city council committees. Earlier recommendations to reorganize the committees and provide some relief for the overworked budget committee were postponed by the council until the aldermen could discuss the issue.

The business license issue has been discussed for more than a year. A draft proposal to revise the antiquated business license ordinance came under heavy criticism last year for requiring more than one license for some stores and for requiring licensing of some professions, such as newspaper reporters, who are not normally subjected to license restrictions.

A later draft ordinance submitted to the aldermen last month for study and Aldermen Paul Risk, chairman of the council's ordinance committee, said he hopes the aldermen will discuss it tonight and finalize the document so it can be adopted soon.

The question of council committees arose last month when Mayor Paul Schuler recommended combining the city hall and city buildings committee into one committee and abolishing the intergovernmental committee and replacing it with an insurance committee.

Schuler said he feels it is necessary to relieve the finance committee from the burden of insurance considerations, especially at this time, while the city's 1981-82 fiscal year budgets are being formulated.

Risk stressed that tonight's meeting will be open to the public.

MAN, 4 TEENAGERS ARRESTED DOWNTOWN

Clifford Schneider, 33, of 4802 Kirkpatrick Homes was freed on $1,000 bond Monday afternoon following his arrest at 1:10 a.m. that day for an improper auto muffler, lack of a valid driver license, transporting beer and contributing to the delinquency of four Quad-City boys, aged 14, 15, 16 and 17, who were charged with violating the curfew and possessing beer.

The five were seen in the 1900 block of State Street and were taken into custody while apparently trying to hide from view in a car parked in the 2000 block of Grand Avenue.

TAKES PURSES

A burglar stole two purses, valued at $221, from the apartment of Helen Osborn, 5800 State St., she reported at 6:50 p.m. Tuesday.

News notes

Wider leeway for unit school districts to tax for student bus transportation was eliminated at an Illinois Senate hearing Wednesday.

Congress is expected to end the "marriage penalty" in federal income taxes.

Metropolitan area unemployment is being projected at 8 percent for May and 7.6 percent for this month, compared to 8.5 percent in March and 8.4 percent in April.

The Bi-State transit system expects to spend $2 million in the next two years to repair cracks in the bodies of 290 buses.

The average new U.S. home cost a record total of $84,000 in April. Sales have dropped to the second lowest annual rate in 11 years.

James M. Furman, vice president of the MacArthur Foundation and former executive director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education, will deliver the IUOE commencement address at 2 p.m. June 12. More than 2,100 degrees will be awarded, and Furman will receive the honorary degree of doctor of education.

Bellevue Area College was host to more than 50 persons who attended a meeting of the Illinois Board of Higher Education on Tuesday. The board discussed pending state budget cuts. It also considered recommendations on remedial education programs, and continued its stand that remedial responsibility should rest with two-year community colleges, not four-year universities.

Doubt of the need for an Illinois vehicle inspection and maintenance program was voiced Wednesday by Dan J. Goodwin, manager of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency's Air Pollution Control Division, in testimony before the U.S. Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works.

Gene Hutchens, a Florissant businessman who survived a severe illness, will speak at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at a dinner meeting of the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship International. Carlo's Restaurant on Highway 157.

MINORITY BUSINESS

SEMINAR ON JUNE 12

A seminar to acquaint minority business men and women with opportunities for doing business with government agencies will be held in Collinsville on Friday, June 12, at the Roundtable Restaurant, near Interstate 70 and Illinois 157.

Fee for the seminar, sponsored by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs' Office of Minority Business Enterprise, is $10. The session will run from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

which were brought forth at the Tuesday night meeting, it was indicated.

No one Tuesday night spoke in favor of closing the Blair School. "If you don't have a school in the community, you don't have anything," Mrs. Barbara Madison, a parent, commented. Her opinion was shared by many others.

Douglas Pritchard buried Wednesday

Services for Douglas G. Pritchard, 1036 Washington Ave., Madison, were held at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at Mercer Mortuary Chapel, 1415 Niedringhaus Ave. Burial was in the National Cemetery at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Mr. Pritchard, 25, was fatally injured on Interstate 70, a half-mile east of Interstate 55, near Troy, at 9:30 p.m. Sunday, May 31, 1981, when his motorcycle collided head-on with a tractor trailer. He was declared dead at the scene.

He was born and reared in the Quad-Cities and was a lifelong resident.

Mr. Pritchard was a veteran of service in the U.S. Navy. He was enrolled as an

Parents oppose

Concerns were mainly focused on the welfare of the children. "If there must be busing, leave the kindergarten and first grades alone," the Rev. Johnson stated. He contended busing would be too disruptive for the smaller children.

Critical comments also were received by the board. Several parents, cited a lack of communication as one of the reasons for the problems which now are being faced.

School board members are hopeful that a workable solution will be reached. "We had help from both sides. I am glad to see we had a good turnout," Dymnas stated.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

WILLIAM PATTON
Exec. Vice-President

Q. Our son, age 12, has just gotten his first part-time, paying job. I feel I should give him some pointers on handling money. Do you have any suggestions?

A. Young people should be introduced to the services of a bank by the time they are handling money on a consistent basis. Regular savings, even though small, prepares your teenager for greater financial responsibility. Young people should have the freedom to control a passbook and make deposits and withdrawals. Later, they should be encouraged to open checking accounts to help them understand simple banking activities like making deposits, writing checks, and balancing the checkbook. Perhaps their first account should be a joint one with a parent or legal custodian. If you want to introduce your child to banking, see one of our officers. When they advise you about money management... you can BANK on it!

Paths of Navy brothers cross

Navy Fireman Garth C. Widel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Widel, 2305 Willow Ave., is home on two weeks leave and will report for duty aboard the USS Independence upon its completion.

At the time he joins the ship at the Mir Mar Naval Base in San Diego, his brother, First Class Petty Officer Robert Widel, will be leaving the same vessel after a tour of duty in the Middle East.

Fireman Widel recently completed six weeks recruit training and four weeks specialized schooling at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

The serviceman is married to the former Connie Acosta. They are the parents of a 1½-year-old son, P.O. Widel and his wife will be visiting his parents later in June, they reported. The couple resides in San Diego, Calif.

GEORGE BARREDA works with his big cats in one of the many circus acts that will be presented at the Aina Shrine circus at the Tri-City Speedway June 10, 11 and 12. The circus performances will follow the annual Shrine parade through Granite City Tuesday night, June 9. The parade will start at 7:30 p.m. at Madison Avenue and 25th Street. The circus also is to be shown in Belleville and DuQuoin.

Shrine circus opens Saturday at Belleville

June brings many things to every community, but to Southern Illinois it means the time of the Aina Shrine Southern Illinois Shrine Circus which presents shows in Granite City, Belleville and DuQuoin.

Since 1967, Aina Shrine has brought the Shrine Circus entertainment to the area, and with promoter George Hubler returning the Shrine has some great acts, some of the top five in the Shrine World.

Circus Chairman Mark Moreton has his many committee Nobles ready for the Friday night June 5, parade in downtown Belleville, and Parade Chairman Norm Ackermann has more than 125 Units waiting for their 8 p.m. start. This parade, which is the largest held in Belleville each year, will attract more than 35,000 viewers as it travels from 17th and West Main to East Main where they will disband at Monroe.

Trophies will be awarded to the best floats in the parade, and since there are two categories, the "Circus" theme and "Salute to America," competition will be high.

Granite City will entertain the parade units on Tuesday evening June 9, beginning at 7:30. The Granite City area turns out in large numbers for the Shrine Parade much to the delight of those in the parade.

DuQuoin will be the scene of the third Shrine Circus Parade when they step off there at 10 on Saturday morning, June 13. Units of Aina along with units from the Southern Illinois area, including a trio of Camels, will entertain the viewers.

The circuses will be on June 6 at Belleclair Fairgrounds, opening on that Saturday with a 2 p.m. show, then back at 7:30 p.m. On Sunday, June 7, it will be 1 p.m., 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and on Monday night, June 8, at 7:30 p.m.

The Circus resumes at Granite City at the Tri-City Speedway on Wednesday, June 10, then on Thursday and Friday nights also at 7:30 p.m.

The Circus moves to DuQuoin for a Saturday night show at 7:30 on Sunday, June 14, the first at 2:30 p.m. and at 7:30 that night.

Aina has kept the price at $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. There are no reserved seats at any of the shows.

Reagan will salute Thompson July 7

President Ronald Reagan, will headline a statewide fundraising dinner saluting Governor James R. Thompson in McCormick Place, Chicago, July 7.

"We are not only proud but deeply honored that Pres. Reagan will return to his native state to deliver this address in July," the governor said. "We are expecting a large and enthusiastic audience from all parts of Illinois."

The address by the president will mark one of his few political appearances since he was sworn in as president Jan. 20.

The dinner will be organized by Robert H. Malott, chairman and chief executive of FMC Corp., dinner chairman, and a 40-member executive committee representing all areas of the state. Tickets are $250 each.

Pres. Reagan is the first U.S. president to be born in Illinois. Tampico was his birthplace and he grew up in Dixon, where he attended elementary and high school. Graduating from Eureka College in 1932, "Dutch" Reagan became the sports voice of the Chicago Cubs and for Station WOC in Danver, Iowa. Following a career in film making in Hollywood, he was elected governor of California in 1966 and was re-elected in 1970.

Loser by a narrow margin in the Republican nomination for president in 1976, he was elected the 40th president of the United States in November 1980 by a wide margin.

Assessing—

his duties, when requested by Barton or members of the Board of Review, to pull property record cards and compute an appraisal on the assessment.

"Schmidt advised that after he had furnished Barton or the Board of Review with the computed assessment, he normally was not asked to remain while the discussion took place with the taxpayer regarding the assessment.

"Schmidt stated that if the Board of Review did approve the assessment of error, reducing the (proposed) taxes on a piece of property—Schmidt's computations would not be attached.

"Schmidt stated that the certificate of error never had the full explanations as to why the taxes were reduced, because an explanation was not put on the certificate itself other than the normal four items that are on the certificate.

"Schmidt advised that if the assessment was in accordance with the original assessment and Barton or the Board of Review still reduced the assessment, the reason would not be found on any documentation in the assessor's records.

"In his opinion, assessments would be reduced for various friends and businesses as a reward.

"If Barton did not know an individual, that individual would not get in to see him," Schmidt said, adding that "unless an individual knew Barton or one of the board members, before his assessment would be reduced he would have to show some type of documentation in order to back up his request.

"According to Schmidt, most certificates of error were not thoroughly investigated as they should have been. They were merely signed by the board members. According to Schmidt, before a change in an assessment could be made, documentation or a physical inspection of the property should have been taken place.

"Schmidt was contacted at one time by Lucille Schmalz, Jarvis Township assessor. She advised that a parcel of property was being continually reduced by the Board of Review.

"Mrs. Schmalz wanted to know if Schmidt would pull the property card and figure the correct assessment for the property. Schmidt did so and came within a couple of thousand dollars' difference of Mrs. Schmalz's figure. Schmidt's figure was higher than Mrs. Schmalz's figure.

"Schmidt advised that, on several occasions throughout the time he worked for the assessment office, he had seen various items brought into the office, especially around Christmas time.

"Schmidt did not know who these items were from, but he believed that they were all for —. According to Schmidt, there were several companies which had considerable cuts in their assessment which he believed were unjustified.

"Mrs. Richey, described by the DCI as assistant supervisor of assessments, had worked in that office for 10 years when interviewed by the state on Oct. 31, 1979.

"She stated that up until 1979, if a person came in to the supervisor of assessments office, complained about taxes to one of the clerks at the office, the complaint was justified, either she would complete a certificate of error or the person would be turned over to Barton or to the Board of Review for a certificate to be completed.

"The only certificates of error she completed were where a taxpayer would have been entitled to a tax reduction by law.

"She cited an example as being a person over 65 years of age who came into the office and stated they had not received the Homestead Exemption on their property taxes.

"In that situation, the procedure would have been to complete a certificate of error and this would have been given to Barton for signature and to the Board of Review.

"Mrs. Richey stated that this year they are requiring documentation because the certificates of error are not only going to the Board of Review but are also being presented to one of the associate judges in Madison County for approval.

"She stated that all certificates of error are going through Barton or to the Board of Review for their approval.

"These could be prepared by the clerical staff, but documentation would have to be there—unless there were problems with the particular taxpayer, and the reasons that the taxpayer was requesting a reduction in assessment.

"Mrs. Richey stated that during her time in the office, she had never felt there was political favoritism given to obtain a certificate of error for a taxpayer.

"She stated she did not believe there were any political favoritisms, or benefits given to any taxpayer through politics.

"She felt that any certificate that was completed by Barton or by the Board of Review, that these certificates of error would be given to the taxpayer.

"She was questioned if her office had ever investigated any certificates or requested documentation prior to the 1979 year. To her knowledge, it was a very rare occasion that someone would physically go out and check a taxpayer's property, although it had occurred in some situations.

"She stated that normally they were too busy to have a person go out and check a particular property to see if it deserved a reduction. Normally, they took the word of the taxpayer.

"Mrs. Richey was asked if anyone in her office other than Barton or the Board of Review had ever sent through a certificate as favor to one of their friends. To her knowledge, no one had.

"Asked if she had any knowledge of any person trying to bribe to have taxes reduced on properties, Mrs. Richey stated that to her knowledge, no one in the Madison County assessment office or the Board of Review had ever been approached by someone trying to bribe them.

"She had never heard anyone state anything that would lead her to believe that someone had either approached them or that they had taken any money for the purpose of reducing the assessment of a piece of property.

"Asked if Barton had control of the Board of Review and could push through any certificate that Barton felt that the Board of Review should not, Mrs. Richey stated that the Board of Review had the final authority in signing certificates of error.

"She stated that, at any time the board felt that a certificate was not justified, unless their signatures were affixed the certificate of error was not valid.

"She felt that Barton could not push through any type of certificate unless the board concurred."

"Francis was not reappointed to the Board of Review when his position on the three-member panel came up for consideration at the May meeting of the Madison County Board. Fred Pinck was reappointed at that meeting, and Robert Harris is in the middle of a two-year appointive term.

"Francis, a lawyer and real estate broker, should not be reappointed to the Board of Review, a county grand jury said in its report last month. It did not say why.

"Francis told the DCI that he questions

"the section of the statute that takes exception to an error in judgment of valuation.

"Francis stated he did not know exactly what the legislature meant by error in judgment of valuation. He stated that the certificate of error was an important part of the tax assessment.

"He felt that certificates of error helped in equalizing the valuation of properties, although he had some reservations in the way some of the certificates had been used in Madison County."

"When he was first appointed, he signed all the certificates presented to him although he stated there were some he felt were questionable. Although he felt they were questionable, he never brought his feelings out before the Board of Review or to Barton.

"Francis felt there was political favoritism in the issuance of certificates in Madison County. In his estimation, some of the reductions appeared to have been more than just favoritism. He stated that the reductions were too large to be only favoritism.

"Francis stated he felt that — was able to manipulate to get any certificate signed.

"Asked if he felt he could substantiate any of the claims that there was wrongdoing, Francis stated that for the last three years (interviewed on Oct. 30, 1979) he had been trying to obtain something to substantiate his feelings, but to this date he could not.

"Even though he questioned particular certificates, he went ahead and signed to stay in the good graces... of the County Board. He stated that he felt if he made too many 'waves,' he would have been replaced as a member of the Board of Review.

"He stated that some of the township assessors did a decent job, but others—particularly in smaller townships—did very little, if anything.

"The Board of Review had to reassess the properties due to the fact that the township assessor did not do his function by reassessing the property.

"Francis stated that even with the board trying to reassess property, there were problems. The board in 1978 reassessed another township, due to the fact that the township assessor was not reassessing.

"He stated that it seemed to him that (an individual) had tried to stop this reassessment, to the point of taking the board out of session before the reassessment could be placed on the assessment books.

"Francis stated that he (Francis) owned properties throughout Madison County and never had a property reduced unless he felt the reduction was justified.

"The DCI reporting agents advised Francis they had been told the situation concerning documentation as a back-up to any certificates of error had helped matter in Madison County to give credence to the usage of certificates. Also, that the new law requiring counties to publish certificates of error had been a help to this county.

"Francis stated he felt the same favoritism was going on now that had in the past.

"He stated, as an example, that properties owned by a construction company had again been decreased this year.

"Francis stated that when this was discussed in the Board of Review with Barton and an attorney, Francis refused to sign a certificate of error and, in fact, walked out of the meeting.

"Francis stated that other situations have occurred that have been similar to this situation."

Seek 2 in stabbing

Warrants have been issued for the arrests of two Granite City men, ages 19 to 20, in connection with the stabbing early Saturday of Jeffrey C. Perkins, 20, of 3008 Warren Ave., during a post-graduation "beer blast" on Horseshoe Lake Road between Sandy Lake and the rail crossing behind Spud's Tavern.

Perkins suffered a punctured right lung and cuts to his chest, upper right arm and the back of his neck when he was assaulted by two youths, at least one of which had a knife. He is recuperating at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

A spokesman for the Madison County sheriff's department said that between 100 and 200 youths had gathered along Horseshoe Lake Road between 2 and 2:30 a.m. Most were from several high school graduation parties which had just broken up and many of those present brought beer and alcohol with them.

Witnesses told authorities that two youths were about to fight and Perkins stepped in to halt the fight. Two outsiders, not affiliated with any of those from the graduation parties, intervened, jumped on Perkins and cut him several times, witnesses said.

Friends took Perkins to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was admitted in serious condition. He has since improved.

Discussions with witnesses led authorities to obtain warrants for the arrests of the young Granite City men believed involved in the assault and Granite City police have been alerted to watch for the two and arrest them when they are located, the sheriff's department spokesman said.

Services for Mrs. Gavin, 73

Funeral services for Mrs. Evelyn A. Gavin, 73, formerly of Pontoon Plaza Apartments, were held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at St. John United Church of Christ. Burial was in St. John Cemetery, 2901 Nameoki Road.

Mrs. Gavin died at 8:30 a.m. Sunday, May 31, 1981, at Eden Village Retirement Center, Glen Carbon, where she had resided the past two years.

Friends called earlier at Randall A. Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave.

Mrs. Gavin, an area resident for many years and a former teacher at Webster and Lake schools, had been active in programs to aid the retarded.

Her husband, Frank Gavin, died in 1960.

Among the survivors are two daughters, Judith and Mary Beth Gavin, both of Boulder, Colo.; a stepson, Frank Gavin Jr., Denver, Colo.; two brothers, Raymond Rellke, Jennings, Mo., and Ivan Rellke, Granite City; and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Rush, Granite City.

Friends took Perkins to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was admitted in serious condition. He has since improved.

Discussions with witnesses led authorities to obtain warrants for the arrests of the young Granite City men believed involved in the assault and Granite City police have been alerted to watch for the two and arrest them when they are located, the sheriff's department spokesman said.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT
Leo G. Cook, 17, Edwardsville, Route Four, was charged with theft early this week for allegedly taking a quilted bedspread from a guest room at the Travelodge here.

International activity for Granite City youth

Daniel T. Edwards, son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. Dale Edwards, 2400 O'Hare Ave., has been chosen as a participant in the Assemblies of God International youth witnessing program, Ambassadors in Mission (AIM).

Dan has been assigned to a team that left today for Paris, France.

He will participate in numerous forms of evangelism including door-to-door visitation, choral appearances and an evangelistic crusade.

The group will be in Paris for approximately three weeks.

There will be 15 youths in this group from various cities throughout the United States.

Dan will be senior at Granite City High School South.

He became interested in the program through participating with Steve Yearby, youth minister for the First Assembly of God Church.

Dan, excited about the trip, does not speak French, but for the past few weeks has been studying French from language tapes sent him.

Since the program was initiated in 1966, an estimated 5,500 young people, ages 16-24, have traveled to 36 countries and have seen 53,000 people accept the Christian faith.

The Rev. J. Philip Hogan, executive director of the Division of Foreign Missions of the Assemblies of God,

Backlog of court cases reduced during April

The courts in Madison County and the Third Judicial Circuit were able to reduce their backlog of cases by 383 during April, but lost in currency in divorce, misdemeanor crime and traffic cases, according to the monthly report issued this week by Madison County Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell.

The total number of cases pending in the circuit (Madison and Bond counties) declined as 5,516 cases were terminated in April while only 5,206 cases were filed.

Portell said he is particularly pleased with major law-jury cases seeking in excess of $15,000 where 73 cases were filed and 119 were terminated.

The felony backlog also declined with 97 cases terminated and only 72 filed, he noted.

"This is an above average month and the Chief Judge Horace Calvo and I are satisfied with the results," Portell commented.

In jury lawsuits exceeding $15,000 sought, 1,500 cases were pending March 31, 73 cases were filed during April and 119 cases were terminated, leaving 1,462 pending at the end of April.

In non-jury cases over $15,000, 30 cases were filed and 15 were terminated, leaving 772 pending April 30.

In lesser lawsuits demanding a jury, 10 cases were filed and 19 were terminated, leaving 559 pending. In smaller non-jury suits, 43 cases were filed, 80 were disposed of and 1,056 still were pending April 30.

Chancery cases declined by eight during the month as 30 were filed and 38 were terminated, leaving 394 pending. Miscellaneous remedy cases climbed with 31 cases filed during April, 29 disposed of and 413 pending at the end of the month, the April report shows.

There were 211 new divorce cases filed in April. A total of 149 were terminated, leaving 1,119 cases pending at the end of the month. Reports show that 80 family cases were filed, but 19 were resolved. That left the court with 1,989 family cases pending.

Of 58 juvenile cases filed, 38 were terminated, and 259 remain pending. There were 72 new felony cases filed for the month, and after 97 were terminated, 424 remained.

359 misdemeanor charges were filed, and 300 were dismissed. A total of 1,957 cases are still pending. New small claims cases numbered 456, and after 371 were terminated, 1,222 are still pending in court.

There was disposal of 111 defendants who were charged with felonies. Of the 111, 89 defendants were convicted of felonies, and 22 were charged, but not convicted, including 6, which were dismissed, and 4 which were reduced.

Guilty pleas for these felony charges totaled 87, and two were convicted by a jury. There were 37 defendants convicted of felonies sentenced to the Department of Corrections. Fifty-two were given probation, including 7 who were sentenced to periodic imprisonment.

Also entered during April were 144 dissolutions of marriages.

Honor local student historians

James Roth of Granite City High School South has received an award as Illinois student historian of the year at Sagamon State University, in Springfield.

He was honored for an article published in the Illinois State Historical Society's "Illinois History" magazine. The article, entitled "Birds in the Cahokia Life Style," was selected in state-wide competition as one of the outstanding articles printed during the 1980-81 school year.

The certificate of award and two blocks were presented to Roth by Secretary of State James Edgar before 2,000 students and parents. Phil Shatto, history teacher at South, was recognized for encouraging students to write for the magazine.

Shatto had three other students who were published authors this year. They are Larry Holder Jr., whose article entitled "Internal Improvements for Illinois," appeared in the February issue; Theresa Gwasdacz, whose article entitled "The Threadbare Thirties," appeared in the March issue; and Mike Zukas, whose article entitled "The Plank Road Experiment," appeared in the December issue.

Granite City High School ranked near the top of schools with the largest number of articles published.

Area bus traffic safety improves

The Bi-State Development Agency has earned a citation for safety improvement from the American Public Transit Association (APTA) in international safety competition among transit systems serving the largest metropolitan areas in North America.

The improvement award, presented at APTA's 1981 eastern conference in May at St. Paul, Minn., honors Bi-State as the transit system serving an urban area with a population of over one million that showed the greatest improvement in safety during 1980. Bi-State achieved a 9.3 percent reduction in the number of accidents per 100,000 miles compared to the previous year. Its accident rate is well below the national average.

Bi-State's fleet of 1,058 buses traveled 28,860,000 miles on area streets last year.

For 1981, Bi-State has set a goal to reduce the number of accidents by at least another 10 percent. "For the first four months of this year we are well ahead of our goal," said John Belger, fleet safety supervisor.

Fifteen transit systems in five population groups were cited for best overall performance, achievement and improvement in safety.

Nominations for area health agency board

In an effort to simplify the Health Systems Agency nomination processes, the HSA board of directors has adopted a new nomination procedure which complies with federal regulations, the agency's bylaws and the board's desire for an "open and understandable process."

The new process includes two scheduled phases of solicitation. The first, which is beginning now, is an announcement of board openings by categories only. At this time, these openings are not specific as to any county or the City of St. Louis, in order to encourage maximum interest from health care consumers and providers across the entire region.

The first phase of the solicitation does not require petitions, although petitions may be presented at any time prior to August. Rather, letters and statements of interest and recommendations are sought for those who meet the announced matrix categories.

The second phase of the process begins in July, when the nominating and membership committee meets to develop county-specific categories.

At that time, the committee will announce vacancies by county and city, and ask for formal expressions of interest, in petitions or letters. Following the end of the petition process in August, the committee will determine the eligibility of the petition candidates and select nominees for the board.

It then will report to the board of directors the names of all eligible candidates, including petition candidates, and will indicate those nominees whom it recommends. The same announcement will be made to all members of the HSA General Assembly.

There are expected to be three Madison County vacancies.

In accordance with the new nominating procedure, the committee is seeking candidates for the Oct. 21 election to the board.

The committee is especially looking for candidates who meet matrix category descriptions which are currently underrepresented on the board. Nominees will not necessarily be limited to these categories, however, and all interested persons are being encouraged to apply, make their interests known, and otherwise participate in the election process.

Four provider and 13 consumer vacancies will be filled. For both provider and consumer vacancies, the committee is encouraging women candidates to apply, as well as representatives of the 18 to 34 and the over 65 age categories.

For the consumer vacancies, the committee would like to encourage representatives of the following to apply: Business, major purchasers, labor, elected officials and other health consumers, particularly handicapped services and mental health services.

In the provider categories, the committee is seeking candidates who are: Physicians (D.O.), nurses, optometrists, physician assistants and other health professionals.

Also, commercial health insurers and representatives from health professional schools of medicine, nursing, dentistry, osteopathy and pharmacy are being encouraged to participate.

Allied health professionals are needed. They include psychiatric and medical social workers, ancillary personnel, physical therapists, practical nurses, and environmentalists.

From the provider category of "other health providers," representation is needed from organizations involved in specific health problems, such as the Lung Association, Kidney Foundation, Red Cross, etc. Following this phase of candidate solicitation, the nominating committee will announce available city and county-specified slots by category.

All correspondence concerning the nomination process is being sent to: Mel Sims, chairman, Nominating and Membership Committee, Greater St. Louis Health Systems Agency, 615 Olive St., 15th Floor, St. Louis, Mo. 63101.

'60 MINUTES' FILM CREW readies for a short piece to be included in a story to be aired on the popular TV magazine show next fall. At left is Morley Safer who is the reporter doing the story. The filming took place in the Third Circuit courtroom of Associate Judge Charles Chapman. The story centers around the recent trial of Jim Green versus the Alton Telegraph newspaper which took place here.

'60 Minutes' films story here

"60 Minutes," the popular CBS television news magazine, came to Granite City this week to film part of a feature story being done by reporter Morley Safer on the trial here of Jim Green versus the Alton Telegraph newspaper and two of its former reporters. The program is expected to air in September or October.

Safer and a crew of five filmed a portion of the program Tuesday afternoon in the Granite City courtroom of Circuit Judge Charles Chapman on the top floor of the city hall, but the portion was filmed behind closed doors and Safer refused to comment on the contents of the interview, other than to say, "Watch the show."

Judge Chapman said he talked to Safer off camera for about 30 minutes behind closed doors, but said they basically discussed what "60 Minutes" had filmed prior to that time and did not discuss specifics of the trial, which was held in May and June of 1979.

Green, a residential developer, won a record $9.2 million verdict against the Telegraph and former reporters Joe Melosi and William Lhotka, after five weeks of testimony before a jury and Judge Chapman.

The jury concluded that a confidential memo the reporters sent to the Justice Department questioning alleged underworld ties between Green, the former Plasa Federal Savings & Loan in Alton, and other area residents caused the collapse of Green's construction empire, as well as the demise of Plasa.

Members of the film crew confirmed that "60 Minutes" had talked to Green, his attorney, Rex Carr, members of the Causley family, owners of the Telegraph, and their attorneys, Bill Cox and Charles Williamson. It is also believed that Safer interviewed Robert DeGrand, former vice-president of Plasa, who also has sued the Telegraph in connection with the confidential memo's possible contribution toward the demise of that savings institution. DeGrand was said to have been interviewed in his home, with his family, and the interview was described as very emotional.

The film crew also is believed to have toured the Quad-City area filming projects constructed by Green.

Chapman said he refused to discuss details of the Green case with "60 Minutes," since there is an appeal pending and public discussion of the case by its participants would be improper.

Some political observers feel the "60 Minutes" inquiry may have stemmed from a Chicago newspaper article, which was reprinted in New York and elsewhere, which was critical of the court system in Madison County for its large verdicts and the Democratic domination of the courts and the courthouse.

The article and others questioned whether the Green case serves as a precedent for huge verdicts against individuals who report suspected crimes to law enforcement agencies. Also being questioned is whether a newspaper should be sued for something it never printed.

Numerous city hall employees were allowed in the courtroom while the Green case with "60 Minutes," since there is an appeal pending and public discussion of the case by its participants would be improper.

"I don't know what they are trying to show, but after they filmed their piece, they were all very pleasant. Safer was very relaxed, once they had done their piece," Judge Chapman said.

GC unemployment down to 12.4 percent

Unemployment in Granite City declined from 14.2 percent in March to 12.4 percent in June, according to preliminary labor statistics released Tuesday by the Illinois Department of Labor.

Likewise, unemployment in Madison County decreased in April from 12.2 percent the previous month to 10.1 percent, according to R. L. Worden of the research and analysis section. Granite City's unemployment, at 12.4 percent, still is higher than East St. Louis (11.3 percent) or Alton (10.7 percent), but is lower than the 13.4 percent unemployment rate in Belleville, the statistics show.

Of an available workforce of 18,843 in Granite City, 2,333 are unemployed in April. That shows an improvement from 2,777 unemployed in the final March figures, which showed the Granite City workforce at 18,974 that month.

East St. Louis has 2,971 workers unemployed out of a workforce of 26,389, according to Worden's research.

In the seven-county area studied by the Belleville office, the overall unemployment rate was 9.9 percent in April, down from 11.7 percent in March. Of 269,301 potential workers in the seven counties, 26,745 were unemployed in April, the report states.

Unemployment rates for other counties during April

(with March figures in parentheses) were: Bond, 10.3 percent (12.9); Calhoun, 16.1 (20.2); Clinton, 10.1 (12.5); Jersey, 11.7 (14.4); Monroe, 8.5 (10.2); and St. Clair, 9.9 (11.3).

DISPUTES ADDRESS

Sandra Cheatham, 33, who was placed on probation in connection with a drug delivery case, does not reside at 1739 Edison Ave., the owner said Wednesday. A previous news article listed that as her address.

Whitmer said, "If the school board says it wants this person to be appointed, I will vote for this thing three or four times because they told us they want. To find out through scutlet and the paper just irks me. I am going to say no."

Alderman Mac Warfield of the Sixth Ward, where the annexed property is located, said that the Meltons had been talking for years about annexing, as have other residents of Town and Country East. He suggested that City Engineer Monroe Brewer go door to door in the area and determine if there are more residents of that area interested in annexing.

Schuler stated, "Many others wanted to come in, but they were not contiguous." He hinted that some may now be contiguous, due to the new annexations.

Alderman Warren Decatur of the Fourth Ward said he did not know if the

City approves

insinuations of politics in the annexations were true, but said the city lost 2,000 residents in the last census and efforts should be made to increase the population through annexations and other measures. "Sure, it is going to take a lot more fire (and police) protection, but it means a lot more taxes," he said.

Decatur added, "It is hard to believe the school board is putting pressure on the council. If so, I would vote no, too."

Aldermen voting against the annexations were Whitmer, Mrs. Perjak, Paul Ray Bowler of the Seventh Ward and Carl Kittel of the Third Ward. After the vote, Warfield said he hopes that in the future at least the aldermen of the ward involved are made aware of any annexations "at least before we come in (to a council meeting)."

Whitmer responded, "If they (annexations) are referred to the Plan Commission, we would get a week or two weeks notice."

Melton issued a statement this morning expressing his surprise at the publicity which accompanied the annexation.

"I never tried to hide my intent, nor did I ask him (Brewer) to do something that hadn't been done before. I really didn't anticipate a problem nor expect the public gossip that followed," Melton said.

"Because of the importance of the job that school board members do, and because of the satisfaction I obtained during my term of service (on the school board), I agreed to seek the appointment. I have done so as best I can."

"There has been no wrong doing that I am aware of, nor would I be a part of something that was wrong. These are the facts as I know them," Melton said in the statement.

Sewer rates

strained, members of the budget committee have indicated.

Insurance premiums are expected to climb $20,000 to $25,000 in the new fiscal year over the old fiscal year and the budget committee is proposing switching workmen's compensation payments for 31 treatment plant employees and two city hall employees in the sewer billing department from the general fund to the treatment fund.

In addition, public records show that the treatment plans is behind on its payments to several escrow accounts, one for preventative maintenance, one for bond contingencies, one for a bond reserve and one for plant depreciation.

Each year, the treatment plant has operated on deficit spending, requiring borrowing at the end of the year.

Terrence McMillan, superintendent of the treatment plant, has said before that the 1981-82 fiscal year was supposed to be "the gravy year," since the county sewers were supposed to be in full operation and making full payments to the city. The delay of the sewers has delayed the city's financial planning, particularly in the reserve funds, which were to be repaid from the county's treatment payments over a 10-year period.

Decatur used no estimated figures when he warned of a possible sewage treatment fee increase. Simple arithmetic shows that with $85,000 needed this fiscal year divided by 15,000 sewage treatment plant users, each user should pay an additional $5.66 per year, or $1.41 more per quarter.

Should the city decide to try and rebuild the depleted reserve accounts, the quarterly increase could be higher, and should the city decide to seek an increase which will allow the quarterly amount to remain unchanged for several years, instead of one, they could seek even higher charges.

One official suggested that the increase sought could be in the $2 to $2.50 per quarter range.

Of the 14,000 users of the sewage treatment plant, records show, 11,000 are city residents, paying $13 per quarter now, and approximately 4,000 are anticipated as county users, when tap-ons are completed. County users pay $18 per quarter for sewage treatment and past bond retirement.

There is an agreement between the city and the county that if the city treatment charge increases, the county charge will increase proportionately. McMillan has been quoted as saying that any city increase will likely be matched by the county users, "dollar for dollar and penny for penny."

To the county users, who are paying heavy taxes on the sewers in addition to treatment and sewer maintenance fees, the news of a possible increase in the sewage treatment charge may be even worse news than to the city residents, who face an increase from a total of $13 per quarter to perhaps $15 or more each three-month bill.

more effective traffic patterns within shopping center boundaries.

—Eventual consideration of overpasses or other improvements at the Pontoon Road, West Pontoon-Nameoki Road and Maryville Road-Route 203 railroad crossings.

—Designation of traffic corridors. —And widening of Pontoon Road and construction or designation of left turn lanes on various other streets.

It was noted that while traffic volume is decreasing nationally, there is still a heavy volume here, including an average of 72 trucks for each barge unloaded at the busy Tri-City Port.

Mayor Paul Schuler, City Council Traffic Chairman Everett Morlen, Granite City aldermen and others are among those enlisting and being enlisted in the effort to attain traffic progress, the breakfast discussion showed.

Moderator was Larry R. Dew and principal speaker was Thomas Thebeus, who has made an extensive analysis of area traffic.

It was noted that the prayer breakfast series is completing its 1980-81 year under Dew's leadership and that Drew Karandjeff will be the 1981-82 chairman.

Art education workshops

The department of art and design at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer two special workshops in art education during the summer quarter. Art Education for the Handicapped (ART 408a) offers a practical "nuts and bolts" approach to teaching art, using art techniques that integrate language, math and social studies for the child with handicapping problems.

Participants will have the opportunity to expand their knowledge in the disciplines of art and special education, while pursuing their special interests in these areas. In addition, they will also receive vital grant information for the professional in the area of therapy-art education. Sessions will meet from June 22 through July 2 from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. in Room 0412 of Peck Classroom Building. Instructor for the course is Frances Tetreault.

Methods and Materials for the Classroom Teacher (ART 408c) will provide assistance in planning workable art lessons for children.

A "hands-on" approach to investigating art-processes and media suitable for elementary children will be utilized. Coursework will include painting, drawing, design, print, construction, model and form with a variety of materials. Craft areas such as ceramics, weaving, and batik will also be explored.

Sessions will meet from July 20 through Aug. 14 from 8 a.m. until noon in Room 320 of Classroom Building III. Instructor for the workshop will be Joe Weber. Students may register for the workshops during regular registration hours. Open registration will be held May 26 from 4:15 until 7 p.m., May 27 from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m., and June 16 from 8:30 until 7 p.m. in Meridian Ballroom. Registration will also be held June 22 and 23 from 8:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. in Room 1308 of the John S. Rendleman Building.

Unclassified and classified graduate students should contact the Graduate School admissions office for registration information at (618) 692-3160. Graduate students residing in the City of St. Louis or the Missouri Counties of Franklin, Jefferson, St. Charles and St. Louis who enroll for nine hours or less of graduate credit will be assessed tuition at the same rates as Illinois residents.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting the department of art and design at (618) 692-3183.

Pingree-Dettmer

St. John United Church of Christ was the scene of the wedding on April 25 of Miss Debra Lynn Dettmer and John R. Pingree Jr.

The Rev. Sheldon Culver performed a double ring candlelight ceremony at 6:30 in the evening.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dettmer, 254 Boyle Ave. The groom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Pingree of Huntsville, Ala., and John Pingree Sr., Hamilton, Mass.

For her wedding, the former Miss Dettmer selected a white chiffon floor length gown fashioned with a Princess Anne neckline, edged with lace, full lace sleeves and a bouffant skirt accented with lace inserts which extended into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was bordered in matching lace and she held a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Maid of honor Miss Kathy Steward chose a long pastel pink floral gown complemented with matching accessories and a floral arrangement of pink daisies and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids, Misses

Donna and Barbara Dettmer, sisters of the bride, Miss Mary Pingree, the groom's sister, and Miss Maria Schmidt, were gowned in rainbow color dresses and each held a bouquet to match their attire.

Angela Cochran and Joseph Valencia served as the flower girl and ringbearer. She wore a lavender frock and she carried a basket of pastel petals.

The groom chose his brother, Alex Pingree, as best man. Glenn Bledsoe, Danny West, Paul Tropiano, Bill Butten and Stephen Pievree, a stepbrother of the groom, and Glenn Neimeyer, the bride's cousin, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

CREWS LIQUOR IT'S STILL QUICKER!

Flowers & Gifts

by Ron Kelih

Roses have played a large part in English history. One of the most famous wars in the western world, immortalized by several of Shakespeare's historical plays was the War of the Roses. The white rose was the symbol of the House of York and the red rose the House of Lancaster. The struggle for power between the two houses began in 1455 and ended with the accession of Henry VII of Lancaster. In Order some today.

Roses are perfect in many ways. They are beautiful in bouquets, long stemmed placed in a vase, or carried by a bride. Roses at BETTY AND BOB'S FLOWERS AND GIFTS, 2156 Pontoon Road, 877-8833 are received regularly from Four Seasons in Litchfield, Illinois, by refrigerated truck. Steven Connor will arrange them into a beautiful floral display, especially for you. Open: Mon. thru Sat., 9 a.m. 'til 5 p.m.

The tapered sleeves ended at the wrists with wide ruffled lace cuffs and the pleated skirt fell softly into a chapel train bordered with matching lace.

She wore a mantilla lace cap to hold in place her cathedral length veil trimmed with Venise motifs, and she held a bouquet of white roses intermingled with baby's breath.

Honor attendant Miss Sara Hall chose a full length pink voile over taffeta dress featuring a fitted bodice and off the shoulder style sleeves. Her full skirt was designed with a bustle in the back and deep flounce encircling the hemline. She carried an arrangement of pink roses and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids, Miss Becky Sarvis and Miss Becky Kozay, cousins of the bride, were attired in pastel blue and orchid gowns identical in the design to the maid of honor.

They carried floral arrangements in hues to match their gowns.

Amy Boring and Johnny Lagneau, the bride's cousins, served as flower girl and ringbearer.

Her ivory lace frock was accented with a peach ribbon-trim and she held an ivory basket of rose petals.

William Kouch attended the groom as best man.

George Bernard Shaw was noted for his combination of wit and wisdom. Here are some examples: "He who can, does. He who cannot, teaches." "Marriage is popular because it combines the maximum of temptation with the maximum of opportunity." "Virtue consists, not in abstaining from vice, but in not desiring it." "Lack of money is the root of all evil." "Everything happens to everyone sooner or later, if there is time enough." "Last and best, perhaps, is this one: 'There is only one religion, though there are a hundred versions of it.'"

The wisdom of ages has culminated today in the search for truth and understanding even of areas once shied away from. At MERCER, THOMAS AND SEDLACK MORTUARIES our staff is prepared to answer your questions and present an objective perspective and thoughts for consideration regarding interment proceedings and related matters. The realities of life, from birth to final passing, are approached today with a sense of reality and awareness. Let us assist you in attaining such an informed position.

The Rev. Melchior Toecek performed the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Organist Jack Jenkins accompanied Karen Tietloff as she sang, "Sunrise, Sunset," "We've Only Just Begun," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Since the bride was injured in the tornado that swept through the Granite City and Pontoon Beach area, in late April she walked down the aisle on crutches and was required to be seated in a wheel chair at the reception.

According to the family her left foot was cut by a piece of flying glass and was almost severed. She was hospitalized for treatment and is still using crutches and the wheel chair, her mother explained.

The former Miss Benson was escorted to the altar by her brothers, Carl E. and David Lee Benson, and she wore a full length white lace gown over a tulle bodice.

The full bishop sleeves were accented with matching lace and caught at the wrists with wide lace cuffs.

Five tiers of lace flounces, enhanced with sequins and pearls, created the bouffant skirt that extended into a chapel train. She wore a Chantilly lace wide brim hat trimmed with bridal illusion at the back. Her bouquet was an arrangement of white silk roses, gardenias and lilies of the valley intermingled with baby's breath and greenery.

Honor attendant was Patricia A. Jarrett and bridesmaids included Barbara and Carol Zarr, sisters of the groom, Pam Fuchs, Trudi Seley, a sister of the bride, and Sherry Benson, a niece of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. They were groomed in rainbow color voile dresses in pink, blue, yellow, apricot, orchid and sea spray.

Their gowns were fashioned with fitted bodices, sweetheart necklines and cap sleeves trimmed with Chantilly lace and seed pearls. A deep flounce encircled the full skirts.

Each attendant wore spring blossoms in their hair and held bouquets of daisies and roses with sprigs of baby's breath in hues to match their attire.

Dawn and Rhonda Benson, nieces of the bride, served as flower girls. They wore frocks of pastel pink rose print on a cream color background and each held a white wicker basket of assorted daisies and baby's breath.

Carl E. Benson Jr., a nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Brian Fuzessery attended the groom as best man.

John Bilich Jr., a cousin of the groom, Mark Zarr, the groom's brother, Jim Bledsoe, Dave Chrusciel, and Jimmy Williams, a nephew of the bride, were groomsmen.

Alan Benko and George Szersinski seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tapp selected a formal blue and gray print georgette gown with long sheer sleeves.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Zarr, was attired in a floor length taupe gown created with a draped bodice and long tapered sleeves complemented with a matching jacket. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

A buffet reception was held at 6 o'clock in the evening at the Croatian Home in Madison. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zarr at Ravanelli's Restaurant.

Patricia Branch attended the guest book.

A South High School graduate, the bride is employed as a secretary at Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Shower for Julie Von Nida

Miss Julie Von Nida was honored Monday evening, with a miscellaneous bridal shower given in the fellowship hall of Grace Baptist Church, Miss Von Nida, the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Chris Von Nida, 2332 East 24th St., will become the bride of Darrell Pare on June 27. He is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Pare, 321 Carlson Ave.

The hall was decorated in shades of lavender and white, colors to be used in the wedding. The refreshment table was centered with a silk-flower arrangement in shades of lavender, with touches of pale yellow and white.

This arrangement was flanked on either side with a silver candelabra which held lavender-colored candles.

The gift table was accented with streamers and wedding bells in keeping with the color scheme, and the guest tables were centered with lavender flowers and bows in white bud vases.

Following several bridal games many prizes were awarded, and the honoree opened her gifts. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Christine Padgett, a son-in-law and daughter, Angie Metz Daech, a daughter, grandsons and their families, Michael and Beverly Petrillo and son Scott and Angela, Edward and Frances Daech and daughter Deanna. Don Padgett, daughter Dawn and son Don Christopher.

Also James and Linda Petrillo and son Chad, Raymond and Mary Jo Thomas, a niece and nephew, Robert and Karen Malotti, great-niece and great-nephew, and sons David and Bobbie.

If you're looking for something a little different in the way of a party, why not try a beer-tasting? With literally hundreds of domestic brands, and some 140 imports, the variety — and possibilities — become incredible. The first thing to do in preparation for a beer-tasting, however, is decide on what types of beer to test. The types — ale, lager or stout, for example — and the number of different beers is up to you, although six to eight is a desirable maximum. Have plenty of clean glasses on hand; each tasting should be from a clean glass. Long stem glasses, like pilsner glasses are best to control temperature. Keep all the beers at the same uniform temperature, and pour down the side of the glass to control the head. Beers should be tested for visual appearance, aroma and flavor. Have plenty of crackers, dry toast or mild cheese on hand to clear the palate between tests and have fun!

International Conference of Weekly Newspaper EditorsGrand jury—Alter confusing law to achieve simpler system; expand county authority over town assessors; lowering of some valuations was probably necessary

Excerpts from the May 14, 1981, report of the Madison County grand jury. With respect to the Madison County Board of Review, we find there has been an exhaustive investigation into matters and allegations concerning conduct on the part of members of the Board of Review and the Office of Supervisor of Assessments, and that there is not sufficient evidence upon which to base an indictment.

We specifically find there was no wrongdoing between Dave Mallett and the Office of Supervisor of Assessments concerning the assessment of Mallett's property.

We recommend that Terry Francis not be reappointed to the Board of Review. We further recommend that the state's attorney release the Division of Criminal Investigation investigative report to the chairman and members of the Madison County Board so that they may review the conduct of members of the Board of Review and employees of the Supervisor of Assessments Office.

Excerpts from the May 7, 1980, Madison County grand jury report—Based on the filing of the extensive report of the Department of Law Enforcement, Division of Criminal Investigation, State of Illinois, which was duly presented and so filed—and the appropriate oral testimony of witnesses concerning this investigation, this grand jury does hereby return a No True (innocent) bill as to the Madison County tax assessment program and procedures as to Supervisor of Assessments James Barton, past Board of Review members Gilbert Hill, Andrew Gilchiff and Robert Coultas, and present Board of Review members Robert Harris, Fred Finck and Terry Francis.

A. The report and testimony presented to this grand jury established improper use of certificates of error in lowering assessments, though said lowering of assessments was probably necessary based upon the investigation conducted. But the use of a certificate of error was an improper procedure for such, in that this would be a judgment situation rather than an error as to which a certificate of error could be used properly.

This grand jury recognizes that improper use of a certificate of error—for the lowering of assessments which are based upon value judgments—is a procedure and process used in many counties throughout the State of Illinois.

And this improper use of certificates of error is no longer available in Madison County, pursuant to instructions from the state's attorney to the supervisor of assessments and the Board of Review.

B. It is recognized that the statutes which apply to certificates of error are confusing to taxpayers, taxing officials and legal authorities.

And there exists legislative confusion as to the interpretation and application of the assessments statutes, as to proper use of certificates of error.

It is further recognized that another change in the procedures in Madison County should result in some avoidance of confusion, by the fact that use of a certificate of error must be reviewed by an appropriate court before said certificate of error may be effective in Madison County.

Continued review of assessment procedures in Madison County and enforcement of the opinion of the state's attorney's office to the supervisor of assessments and the Board of Review—should avoid many of the problems which have been revealed in the investigation of use of certificates of error.

But it is recognized that there still remains a very confusing system for the use of the taxpayer who wishes to appeal an unjust assessment or over-assessment pursuant to some type of simplified system.

C. If a taxpayer receives an unjust assessment for one reason or another, there should be an easy way of affording the taxpayer relief legally, through a procedure like the use of certificates of error, which would be reviewed by a certain chain of authority.

At present, there is confusion as to the authority—whether it be initial authority or review authority—of the various assessing bodies as compared to each other.

There should be legislation establishing four levels of authority and further establishing the appropriate lines of communication.

1. The local township assessors would be the first level, whereby their purpose would be to actively assess the properties and provide the supervisor of assessments with their books on a timely basis. And they would have a direct responsibility to the supervisor of assessments.

2. Appropriate authority must be provided to the supervisor of assessments to enforce the assessment rules, regulations and statutes as to local township assessors.

In that there are many small townships without the financial resources to provide full-time assessors, a solution may be the combination of smaller townships as assessments and, rather than the election of township assessors, the appointment of township assessors that have been certified by examination.

Thereby, the supervisor of assessments would be the second line of authority.

3. The third line of authority would be the county Board of Review, which would oversee and supervise the supervisor of assessments as to all actions and procedures.

4. The highest level of authority would be the State Board of Appeals as to the final review or action as deemed necessary in a particular case.

These levels of authority could be made available to the taxpayer for a review, in all situations for the taxpayer as to a complaint about an unjust assessment.

D. In addition, there should be a legislative change in assessment—by any of the assessment officials—should be a permanent change in assessment. Rather than the situation where there were changes in assessments by certificates of error which were effective only for the year of the certificate and, in fact, the assessment would return after the year to the assessment value which was changed.

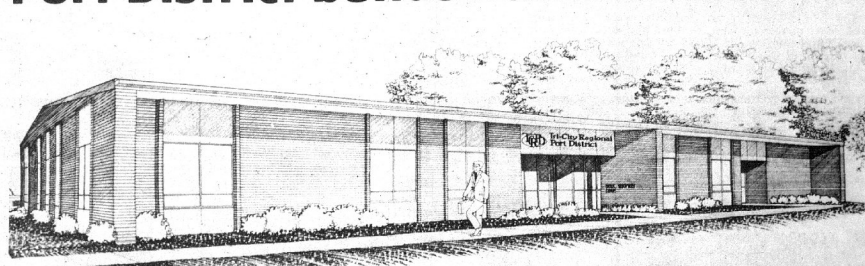

The procedure should provide for notices to all local assessment officials as to any change in assessment.

And there should be notice to the taxpayer of any changed assessment, and notice to the supervisor of assessments.

E. It is recognized that local governmental bodies must receive tax revenues to operate, but the system must be fair, equitable, open and be available to every taxpayer—which is not the case, pursuant to the present statutes.

It is further felt that—with the establishment of a clear chain of authority as proposed—this would result in more effective supervision, review and policing of actions between the various assessment levels, rather than the ineffective policing and supervision between these bodies as existed in the past.

Wilson Park losing its beauty

To the Editor:
I visited Wilson Park yesterday for the first time this year.

I was shocked, disappointed and angered at the conditions of the park in the garden area, you couldn't see the iris for the weeds and grass, for instance.

I watched destruction going on all around me. There were children wading in both fish ponds that are filled. They were pulling up the water lilies and catching the goldfish. There was climbing on the rock formations and to the top of the structure in the old swimming pool site.

I reported this to the swimming pool personnel. They were very sympathetic but told me to report it to a park guard.

After much searching, I finally found one, who said he had been chasing these kids all day.

Is there nothing to be done about such destruction of public property?

My family and I have been visiting the park since 1947 and it breaks my heart to see the deterioration in this area. It is even worse to see it destroyed by a few disorderly, disrespectful, ignorant people.

To me, the park has always been one of the main attractions in Granite City. Please, everyone, let's try to keep it beautiful.

Command medical staff

To the Editor:
Having recently returned to work, after a rather long illness, I want to say I did not really appreciate St. Elizabeth Medical Center until I spent three weeks there.

I found the staff on the third floor very capable, friendly and hard working. Beginning with Dr.

Lawrence T. Harmon, an excellent physician, all the way to the housekeeping staff, I could not have had better treatment.

The people of this area are indeed fortunate to have the dedicated staff working at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Holiday safety on area highways

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Illinois State Police, I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for your support and cooperation in Operation CARE (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) during the Memorial Day holiday weekend.

In the 1981 Memorial Day holiday period, Illinois had a total of 26 fatalities, two less than last year during the same holiday period.

During each of these two holidays, only three of the total fatalities occurred on designated CARE highways. State Police District Eleven had no fatalities during the Memorial Day holiday period in 1980 and 1981.

Our district's personnel expended 420 manhours generated 331 enforcement contacts on CARE routes during the holiday period.

By utilizing the support of the news media, we were able to inform the general public of the efforts of the Illinois State Police, through Operation CARE, to reduce traffic accidents and fatalities during the holiday period.

Postman saves ill woman's life

To the Editor:

I wish to let the community know of a life-saving deed of one of Madison's post office substitute letter carriers, Larry Hays.

On May 28, at 11:05 a.m. he answered my mother's plea for help.

She had gotten dizzy, and fell onto her enclosed front porch, injuring herself about the head and body. This had happened around 10:30 a.m. Mr. Hays found her lying in a pool of blood, he literally saved her life.

Sometimes we tend to forget this side of the Postal Service and remember only the postage stamp increases, late delivery, etc.

Therefore, I feel the community should know that these civil servants do more than deliver mail. Thank God that they do.

God bless you, Mr. Hays, I, as well as my sisters and our families, will never forget you.

Bogus handbills plague veterans

"Wampum from Washington"—that's the latest version of the long running insurance hoax that has plagued the Veterans Administration and thousands of World War II veterans since 1948.

The "Wampum" handbill, advising WW II vets they can collect a non-existent insurance dividend on their cancelled policies, has recently surfaced in Minnesota, Ohio, Indiana, Louisiana and Montana.

The fraudulent flyers promise to "cut red tape" by supplying an address for a quick dividend payment in return for $10 that is to be sent to a post office box. Postal authorities have taken a dim view of this scheme and have already interviewed one man who was distributing the handbills at a Wisconsin American Legion meeting.

Postal inspectors report that the Wisconsin operator claimed he "bought" the address from a person in Minnesota, and went on to produce a check which he said he had received in response to his insurance dividend claim. The check was not issued by VA and the address he was selling is one that has been used for years in this perennial hoax.

The hoax, which has been cropping up in a variety of forms since 1948, claims too that dividends are available for the asking on cancelled insurance.

Official looking forms—complete with address of a VA insurance center—often show up mysteriously at meetings of unions, veterans organizations and even in public buildings. Many unsuspecting newspapers have passed on what they considered the "good news."

The bogus forms have been sent to VA by the thousands each month for several years.

Acting VA Administrator

Rufus Wilson speculated that "someone has obviously decided that if there are that many gullible people, there must be a way to make a quick buck out of it."

VA has investigated the hoax from every conceivable angle, "according to Wilson, "without ever being able to establish any logical motive for spreading this false information. But with this new and illegal approach of selling the address, we advise that a report be made immediately to local police officials when anyone is observed producing or distributing the so-called application forms or the "Wampum from Washington" handbill."

The program will be conducted at a private swimming facility in Granite City. Registration is limited and is offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

Recruiting is also under way for individuals who wish to assist the handicapped.

Sessions will be held from 5:15 p.m. until 7 p.m. at the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion.

Individuals who wish to participate in this program, as volunteers or participants, may contact the local Red Cross office, 3700 Namecki Road, 452-7184.

Summer baton

class at park

The first summer baton twirling class to be sponsored by the Granite City Park District in several years will start Wednesday, June 10. It was announced this week.

Registration for classes will take place on the first day. At that time the instructor will explain what is needed to participate, a spokesman advised.

Sessions will be held from 5:15 p.m. until 7 p.m. at the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion.

The number of children interested in baton substantially increased during the winter months, which prompted the district to offer a summer series of classes.

The seven-week program for first through sixth grade youngsters. There is no fee for the sessions, but participants are required to purchase the $3 district insurance.

Forum to deal with transit issues

Bi-State director Charles Houghton will join economists at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in a public forum to discuss the economics of bi-state transit.

The forum will be held June 23, at the First Street Forum in St. Louis.

The informational session, part of a continuing series aimed at public understanding of complex, local issues, is free and open to the public, sponsored by the department of economics and the Center for Management Studies in the SIUE School of Business.

Houghton, executive director of Bi-State Development Agency will open the forum with the specifics of financing bi-state transit in the metropolitan area.

Each speaker will have eight minutes for arguments before the forum is opened to questions from the audience.

John Flanders, SIUE economics lecturer, will take a free market approach to welfare subsidies in the bi-state question. He will argue for using subsidy money to pay the poor directly for example, letting them support the transportation that serves them best, rather than subsidizing a particular industry.

Sociologist John E. Farley will look at the impact of transit cuts on East St. Louis, based on a national study he completed on jobs and car ownership in the central city and the outlying areas.

"When you put those things together, you find that it can have an impact on employment," he said.

Billy-Belle Weber, coordinator of development at SIUE's East St. Louis campus and a teacher in its Science Awareness program, will show how the failure of mass transit will affect different segments of the city population, particularly the elderly and students, but ultimately all merchants.

Other panelists are economists Donald S. Elliott, speaking about subsidizing a decreasing cost industry; John B. Meisel, on competition in public transit; David E. Ault, who will rethink the concept of public transportation; and Radcliffe G. Edmonds, speaking about the case for the hidden cost of private automobiles.

Stanford L. Levin, associate professor of economics, will draw together the various arguments and give a conference overview.

Gilbert Rutman, department chairman, is moderator.

The forum will meet from 2 until 4 p.m. at 717 N. First St. in Laclede's Landing. For additional information, contact Robert Kohn at 692-2542.

Combined strengths make Tri-City the favorite

ELDON WARFIELD

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Many people have probably wondered what the sports teams would be like if the two Granite City high schools were to merge back together again. That would only be guessing, though. A couple of Granite City American Legion baseball teams have also drawn that question. But that merge has become a reality.

Last summer, the legion teams in Granite City were reduced to just one squad when the Glen Carbon Post's team, which used players from Granite City North High, disbanded. Now a number of those players have joined forces with Tri-City Post 113 for the 1981 summer season. It has created a team with some bonafide potential. And second year coach Eldon Warfield couldn't be more pleased.

"It has made a major difference in our team," said Warfield. "First of all, I think there should only be one legion team in Granite City. It's really tough to compete with the Belleville team, because they have such a surplus of players. And some of the best." But now Warfield has corralled some of the better baseball players in the city to play for Tri-City.

Corralled is the right word. It may sound strange, but Warfield actually had a tough time finding enough players for his team. "Some guys just didn't want to play and others I had a rough time getting released from Glen Carbon last year. It's hurting those kids and it hurt us last year."

Warfield felt that his team was better than its 21-19 record of 1980 would indicate. That just might all change with the new additions to Tri-City's roster. Pitching was an area Warfield thought his team was lacking last year. So, he picked up Rick Takamajan and Paul Eads, just graduated from Granite City North, Keith Burton, a freshman at Belleville Area College and Steve Doty, a freshman from Lewis and Clark Community College.

If that's not strong enough, Tri-City will also have the ace arms from Granite City South in Randy Cann and Rick Daily. And the batting corps doesn't look too shabby, either. Rick Buer, Dan Patterson and Daren DePew's power bats from North will beef up Tri-City's run production too. It's like Warfield will have to coach the Granite City all-stars. Some of the best talent is on the team. And it could pose a bit of problem. "It will be harder to coach them," said Warfield. "We have the best players and now they are expected to win. That puts the pressure on them."

"I myself like the pressure. It all depends how serious they are. I don't know how they'll react on the field together. It will be to their advantage." Even though Warfield has some of the better talented players, he still feels that legion baseball is being hurt from other leagues. "They should get rid of the Inter-City League," said Warfield. "It's the worst brand of baseball I have ever seen. That's the bottom line. Scouts aren't going to look to Inter-City for players. They'll look to legion."

But the players that have made the choice to play for Warfield will have another decision to make. "I have to feel the players out," said Warfield. "They'll have to adjust to me. They have to learn my type of baseball. I was coached well and I'm just trying to pass along what I know to them. Who

Legion tops Stockham, 9-4

By TOM SCHOCKER

GRANITE CITY — Eldon Warfield had waited a long time for this game. After two pine-outs, Warfield, the Tri-City American Legion Post 113 head baseball coach, has finally been able to see his team in action. And he liked what he saw.

Tonight's game postponed

Tonight's American Legion baseball game between Tri-City and Centralia, which was scheduled for 7:30 at Granite City South, has been postponed because of Centralia High School's game this afternoon in the State Baseball Finals.

Centralia's Legion team is made up entirely of players from Centralia High.

At the ball, Warfield, in fact did not flash that sign, but it didn't matter as Linhart managed to bloop the ball to leftfield.

The ball eluded the charging fielder and Daily scored all the way from first base. The flood gates had opened. Linhart was followed by an RBI double from George Jarvis, an RBI single from Rich Cope and another RBI hit from John Vrenken. Remember, this all happened after two were out.

Tri-City scored four times in the inning and opened a lead that would enable it to post its first victory. "We will hit that way at times," said Warfield. "We'll be a good hitting ball club."

Bob Ford got a good jump on the season as he was solely responsible for giving the Triplets their first three runs. He singled home two in the initial inning and grabbed his second base hit of the game in the second that scored another.

But Tri-City showed that it will more than just a run-scoring team. It has the pitching to back up its barrage of offense.

Warfield went with three pitchers throughout the game. Keith Burton started on the mound and went three innings. Steve Doty came on in relief and hurled the next three frames as Kevin Cripps finished up the final innings. It was a pre-planned move by Warfield and it worked to a tee.

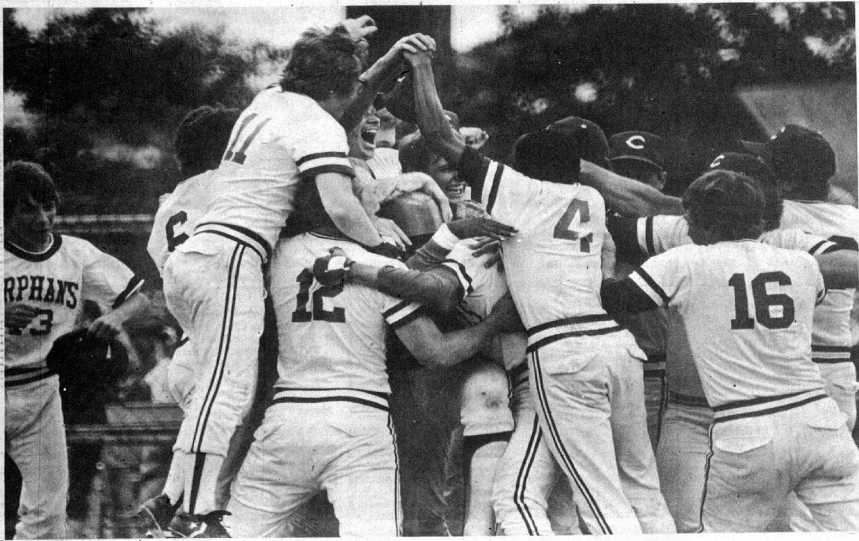

"I wanted these three pitchers ready for next week when the league games begin," said Warfield. "Since this was a non-league game, it was a good time for them to tune-up." It really didn't look like the three-some needed any practice.

Take away the four errors and it could have been a combined two-hitter. But unfortunately the errors hurt Burton, who still managed to give up just two runs on one hit. Again, despite giving up a run via the error, Doty pitched flawless ball as he walked only one batter and had a streak of nine straight outs before leaving the game. He also turned out to be the winning hurler.

Cripps picked up the save and allowed the most hits of the other two pitchers combined — two. "I really liked what I saw tonight," said Warfield. "If we can run some things out and cut down on the errors, we're going to be a good ball club."

Kahoks felled by late blast

By RICK WELLE

GRANITE CITY — If it weren't for the distant celebration of the Centralia Orphans, you could have heard each Centralia player's heart throb as it worked its way into his throat.

The "Kardiac" Kahoks just ran out of luck yesterday afternoon at the Granite City South Class AA Baseball Sectional. After coming from behind to tie the game in the seventh inning on Todd Miller's two-run homer, the Kahoks fell in extra innings on a three-run Centralia blast, 5-3.

Seniors Rod Woods and Miller sat next to each other on the bench after the loss. The game was the last step toward a second consecutive state final tournament for the defending champions and the anguish of a shattered dream was lined in their faces.

Never had silence been less golden.

"Well, it was a tough one, wasn't it?" Collinsville coach Russ Keene said as his players slowly filed toward the bus. "I can't remember anything like this — the sectional lasting this long and turning out the way it did."

The championship game, originally scheduled for Monday, was postponed until Tuesday because of rain. In the top of the third inning the game was suspended, again because of the heavy rains, and play was resumed yesterday.

The game ended as abruptly as the rains began. Senior Jamie Kell's three-run homer in the bottom of the 10th inning thrust the Orphans into the state finals for the first time. They were scheduled to face Bartonville Limestone at 2 p.m. today at Springfield Lamphier Park in the State Class AA quarterfinals.

Woods, who went all 10 innings for Collinsville, ran into trouble immediately in the final inning with the Orphans trailing 3-2. Designated hitter Del Wilkins grounded to third baseman Steve Bluemmer and reached first when the ball rolled by him. Mike Smith then drew a walk. Then Kell clouted the first pitch to him some 340 feet over the left center field fence.

"They must have written a new book," Keene said. "We expected a bunt and the kid hits the first pitch out. It doesn't figure."

Keene had gone to the mound right before Kell's big blast to set up the bunt defense. With the number two batter in the box, the "norma" thing to do would be to bunt the runners over the second and third.

But Centralia chose not to be "normal." "When you've got a man batting .530 you don't take the bat out of his hands," said Centralia coach Don Walker.

Oddly enough, it was only Kell's second homer of the season. And it hadn't been for Miller's second homer of the season in the seventh inning, it wouldn't have been necessary.

Things looked awfully bleak before that homer.

Collinsville fell behind 2-0 in the third inning (the first of the day because of the rain delay) on Jason Kell's (Jamie's younger brother) two-RBI double.

In the seventh inning, catcher A. G. Dunaway drew a one-out walk, but Robert Sanabria struck out for the second out.

That's when Miller delivered his 330-foot shot over the left-center field fence to tie the game. "It was a hanging slider," centralia pitcher Dawayne Barnett later said. "It was right up in his wheelhouse and he creamed it."

Miller, who has been THE clutch man all season for the Kahoks, again came through at the 10th inning. He singled and later scored on Bluemmer's single to apparently put Collinsville in the driver's seat of a bus headed toward Springfield.

"You never know what to expect in a situation like this," Keene said. "I know myself, I'm mentally drained — mentally and physically drained. It was tough on both teams. It's going to be tough on Centralia (at the state finals)."

"You try not to think about the state tournament, but it always pops in your mind," he said, referring to all the plans of hotel reservations, travel, etc.

"But now that's Centralia's problem."

Orphans' hero Kell never gave up hope before homer

By PETE HAYES

GRANITE CITY — Senior Jamie Kell wasn't just congratulated by his teammates — he was mobbed. Somewhere in the white and cardinal red mound of celebration was the man who delivered a three-run homer that thrust the Centralia Orphans into the IHSA State Baseball Finals for the first time.

It was Kell's blast in the bottom of the tenth inning of the Orphans' Granite City South Class AA Sectional title game against Collinsville that gave Centralia a 5-3 victory yesterday here.

"This was a fastball. They were throwing it to me all day," Kell said after the jubilation died down somewhat. "My coach told me if he came in with a fastball to just crank it — and it was right there."

"There hasn't been a time, believe it or not, in a clutch situation that he hasn't come through," said Centralia coach Don Walker. Kell's homer, only the second he hit this season, caps a season of success. Not only is he batting .528 for the 25-6 Orphans, but he also has an 8-1 pitching record.

One of those eight wins was a no-hitter against Carbondale early in the season. Centralia, you might recall, lost to Carbondale 3-0 in the Centralia Regionals game, but advanced to the South Sectional when Carbondale was disqualified by the IHSA on a technicality.

"This has been our dream since we were freshmen, and Collinsville had beaten us all three years (in the regionals)," Kell said. "When we found out we were back (in the tournament after losing to Carbondale), it gave the team what it needed. Everybody was pumped up."

"I'll say this for Collinsville," Walker said. "(Rod) Woods is a super pitcher. He had super location all day long. Yet, it was just a key hit."

Collinsville's Todd Miller cracked a two-run homer with two out in the top of the seventh inning to tie the game and send it into extra innings. "I never did relax even with two out," Walker said. "I know it's not over until it's over. Collinsville has been there before. They know what it takes to get it done. And so do we, now."

Even when the Orphans fell behind 3-2 in the top of the tenth inning, Walker didn't give up hope. "You never know when to count these guys out," he said. "I knew something good was going to happen."

"We didn't know how much we wanted it," winning pitcher Dawyne Barnett said, "until we lost it and got it back."

DEJECTED. Collinsville pitcher Rod Woods dejectedly stares at the ground Wednesday after giving up a three-run home run to Centralia's Jamie Kell in the bottom of the tenth inning in the championship game of the Granite City South Class AA Sectional Tournament. While Woods listens to coach Russ Keene, Centralia celebrates around home plate.

Mendoza honored

ST. LOUIS — Granite Cityan Danny Mendoza received the Bobby Walsh Memorial Trophy here Wednesday night at the St. Louis Amateur Boxing Association dinner.

Mendoza, who boxes for the Mexican Honorary Commission team from Granite City, received the trophy from Myrl Taylor, president of the boxing association. The award is based on Mendoza's sportsmanship in the recent St. Louis Gold Gloves Boxing Tournament.

Mendoza is coached by Mercie Mendoza.

Slobo at South

GRANITE CITY — Slobo Iljevski, star goalkeeper for the St. Louis Steamers, will headline the Warriors' Kicker Camp this summer at Granite City South High School. The soccer camp for boys and girls ages 5 through high school.

Iljevski, a native of Yugoslavia, is a favorite of Steamers fans and helped lead his team into the Major Indoor Soccer League championship game this past season. Teammate Tony Bellinger may also make an appearance at the camp, but final details have not yet been announced.

The camp will be held June 29 through July 3 at Granite City South. Iljevski will appear Tuesday, June 30.

Dragsters back

GRANITE CITY — The American Hot Rod Association's Gateway National at St. Louis International Raceway on June 5, 6, and 7, 1981 will field the largest and most competitive group of drag racers ever to assemble in the Midwest. Leading the group of professional drag racers will be "Big Daddy," Don Garlits, who was the APRA Top Fuel World Champion for the third consecutive year in 1980.

Garlits will be challenged by a very tough field of Top Fuel drivers, including his old rival Shirley Muldowney. Other Top Fuel entries are Chris Karamessines of Chicago, IL; Gene Snow from Ft. Worth, TX; Dale Wilch of Kansas City, KS;

76'er at camp

ST. LOUIS — Maurice Cheeks, starting guard for the Philadelphia 76'ers, headlines the list of camp counselors for the 1981 Ron Ekker Basketball Camps. The camps, which will be held in three sessions at Maryville College in St. Louis County, is for boys in the 7th through 12th grades. All camp activities are designed and supervised by Billiken Head Coach Ron Ekker and his staff. The camp dates will be: June 7-12, June 21-26 and August 2-7.

Cheeks, always a camp favorite, led the 76'ers to a tie with the Boston Celtics for the best record in the NBA during the regular season. Cheeks played for Ekker while an undergraduate at West Texas State University.

For more information or to enroll in the camp those interested may write: Ron Ekker's Basketball Camp, 3672 West Pine, St. Louis, MO 63108 or call (314) 658-3187.

GRANITE CITY — Once again Granite Cityans dominated the Region II selections for the United States Youth Soccer Federation's Select Team.

Four Granite Cityans were named to the Region II squad. Greg White, David Paz, Richie Moore and Robert Szeles were the only four from the Southern Illinois squad chosen.

White, Paz and Moore played for Gene Baker's Granite City South state championship team last season. Szeles was a starter for Granite City North coach Bob Kehoe.

The four will play, along with the rest of the Region II squad, at LaPorte, Ind. June 21-27 at a special training camp. From there, they will go to the National Training Site in Colorado Springs, Colo. June 28 through July 4.

The four were picked on the basis of their play in the Select Team Tournament last month in Wisconsin. There, Illinois teams came home with a combined record of 14-1-1.

Inclusion in that string of wins was one by the Under-17 year old boys squad over the Missouri, 1-0 on a goal by Brian Pickens of Granite City North. Pickens, who played brilliantly during the tournament, caught the eyes of many of the coaches watching the action.

The Under-17 squad finished the meet with a 4-0 record — all by shutouts. It also recorded wins over Indiana (2-0), Kansas (1-0)

Don Denner from Wichita, KS; George Tolon of Chicago, IL; JoAnn Reynolds from Salt Lake City, UT; and John Williams of Raytown, MO; along with many others.

The Gateway Nationals represent the fourth race of a tough drag racing schedule which will be culminated at Spokane, Washington in late August. A racers overall performance determines the AHRA World Champion in each category.

Discount tickets, are available at Larry Lampert Auto Centers and Burger Kings in this area. Discount prices are $10 for Saturday, and $10 for Sunday.

For further information those interested may call: AHRA (913) 341-2266; track Wilch of Kansas City, KS; (618) 271-2900.

FITNESS AWARDS. Three Granite City high school seniors were recently awarded their eighth consecutive President's Physical Fitness Award. Each girl has won the award every school year since the fifth grade. Above (l-r) are Susan Landys of Granite City North, Toni McCann of Granite City South and Julie Ross of Granite City South.

Coolidge holds awards ceremony

GRANITE CITY — The Coolidge Junior High School Awards Dinner was held last week in the school cafeteria. There were 115 in attendance. The program honored the cheerleaders, pep club members, and athletes for the school year.

Following dinner, special guests from Granite High School South spoke. They were Ellen Range, varsity soccer cheerleader 1981-82; Nancy Nolan, president of Red Peppers 1981-82; and Delmar Fernandez, Letterman's Club and soccer player. Each person spoke on the requirements and activities of their groups for the information of the eighth graders at the dinner.

The following track awards were made by Coolidge teachers Keith Parker and Jim DeLeonardis: Lisa Adams, the most improved girl track and Wisconsin (2-0). Goalie for the Southern Illinois was Granite City South's Joe LeMaster.

The girls' Under-19 team finished with a 4-0 mark, the Under 16 girls were 3-0-1, and the Under 16 boys were 3-1-0, their only loss coming at the hands of eventual division champion Michigan.

Other members of the Under-19 squad included Robbie Mann of Granite City South, Greg Nasello of Alton and Bobby Tajada of Collinsville.

Plans are being made for a Regional Select Team tournament to be played next month in Alton. However, details have not been finalized.

Dix to Wright St.

DAYTON, Ohio — Granite City South midfielder Tim Dix has signed a National Letter of Intent to play soccer for Wright State University next fall, it was announced today.

Dix, who has been described by South coach Gene Baker as one of the hardest-working players he's ever coached, inked the National Letter earlier this week.

Dix was one of the best defensive players on the South squad, which captured its fifth consecutive Illinois state championship last season. He was used to mark the opposition's best midfielder game after game.

Even though his forte was defense, he nonetheless scored 18 goals for South, which finished the season with a 26-1-1 record, the state title and the championship of the prestigious CYC Tournament in St. Louis, the first non-St. Louis school to win it.

Dix has played on the last three South state championship squads.

In addition to his letters in soccer, Dix has also lettered three times in track and twice in hockey.

Thornburg honored

ITHACA, N.Y. — Eric Thornburg, a junior from Granite City North High, and a three year letterman on the varsity soccer team, has been elected president of the Red Key Society for the 1981-82 academic year, it was announced today by Dick Schultz, director of athletics at Cornell University.

Thornburg heads the list of five Cornell athletes who have been elected by members to serve as officers in the Society. Elected vice president was junior Beth Tremner (Wexford, Pa.), a three-year letterman on the women's gymnastics team. Junior Jeanette Ryan (Armonk, N.Y.), a Ryan year performer on the women's volleyball team, will serve as treasurer; while junior Marianne Moag (Wyoming, N.Y.), a member of the women's field hockey team, and junior Sally Kohl (Bala Cynwyd, Pa.), a women's lacrosse player, have been elected to serve as secretary and athletic chairperson, respectively.

The Red Key Society, originated in 1924, was reactivated in February of 1978 after a two-year absence from campus. The purpose of the society is to advise and help review the courtesies extended to visiting athletic teams and to help promote athletics on the Cornell campus.

Thornburg, a wingback for the Big Red soccer team last season, has been one of the team's top defensive players the last three years. He earned honorable mention All-Ivy honors as a sophomore. Thornburg will also serve as a tri-captain of the soccer team for the 1981 season.

Chyzowych to Fever

PHILADELPHIA — Olympic and U.S. National Coach Walt Chyzowych has been named head coach of the Philadelphia Fever. The announcement was made by the Fever at the annual Major Indoor Soccer League Board of Directors meeting last week here. Chyzowych, who made an appearance in Granite City recently, has resigned his National Team duties.

BUSCH TRYOUTS

The Busch Gardens soccer team will hold tryouts for boys born in the year 1970 this Sunday. The tryouts will be at 10 a.m. at Washington Junior High School, 5165 AMBS Road in south St. Louis.

Combined

knows? Some might not have to adjust."

Warfield may only have to worry about half of his team. The other half has brought some valuable experience with them. "The biggest thing that will make the difference on this team is the guys coming back from college," said Warfield. "This year we are extremely old."

The so-called "old timers" on the Tri-City squad include Kevin Sykes, Rich Cope, Bob Ford, Kevin Cripps and Burton all from Lewis and Clark. Dix comes from BAC and John Vrenick returns from Southwest Missouri State University.

To say the least, Warfield has a pleasant problem for the summer. He has some of the best players in the city. The only thing that worries him is their adjustment to one another. "I foresee a successful season," said Warfield. "Just have to wait and see how the players learn to play with each other."

That kind of problem could rectify itself within the first few games. And Warfield has been looking forward to the start of this season for a long time. "When I was playing college ball I was looking to this season," said Warfield, who just wound up his collegiate career at St. Louis University, where he was a starting third baseman. "I'm kind of holding my breath to see how we do. I don't want to get people too optimistic, but if we don't win the league, I'll be extremely disappointed."

St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary awards

By VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record: Eighteen outstanding young people, all studying in the field of allied health careers, are the 1981 recipients of scholarships from the St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary.

This year's award winners are Richard Unger Jr., Kathleen Lutes, Lawrence Heagy, Barbara Franich, Linda Slover, Kim Turner, Susan Seilheimer, Jeanne Spahn, Connie Siebert, Rosemary Alexander, Barbara Hutson, Muriel Moseley, Delores Straubinger, Leann Cooper, David Aldridge, Karen Teitloff, Tammy Hartzel and Katherine Hunt.

A special awards ceremony was held May 18 in the all-purpose conference room at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and the scholarship certificates were presented to the grant winners by Joyce Toussaint of the auxiliary's Scholarship Committee.

Also on the grant selection committee are Sarah Metcalf, Margaret Lee and Elizabeth Briggs.

In addition to the recipients and auxiliary members, also present at the ceremony were family members and friends of the honorees.

Grants of $350 are awarded without obligation, except a recipient must continue his or her studies in a health career, Mrs. Helen Bergfield, auxiliary president, explained.

Such fields of endeavor may include dietetics, medical records, pre-nursing, physical therapy, nursing, X-ray technology and pharmacy, among others. Mrs. Bergfield said the funds are paid directly to the college or university at which a recipient is enrolled and may cover the cost of tuition, fees, books, uniforms, room or board.

Students interested in securing a scholarship next year may obtain an application in January 1982 in the Coffee Shop at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, according to Mrs. Toussaint.

A review of the applications will be made in April 1982.

Among the 18 scholarships presented this year, six are grants to new applicants and 12 are renewal scholarships. The students are enrolled at such institutes of learning as the University of Illinois, St. Louis University, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Deaconess Hospital, SIU School of Dentistry, Belleville Area College, Olivet Nazarene College, Jewish Hospital, Lewis and Clark College and Missouri Baptist Hospital.

Shop around for best deal

When traveling by plane or train, renting a car after you reach your destination offers freedom to explore the locale more easily and thoroughly and may be essential when visiting a place where main attractions are separated by miles of highway.

A rental car also may save your vacation should the family auto break down enroute or offer you a chance to save some money if you can arrange to drive someone else's car to your destination and get paid for doing so.

Shop around for the best price before signing any rental agreement and carefully inspect both any contract and car you're considering.

A similar car may cost several times as much to rent at one place as another, depending on the terms.

For example, some agencies rent cars for a flat charge per day or week, regardless of how many miles you drive. Other firms charge a daily rate plus a mileage rate.

Another common arrangement has the person renting the car pay a daily or weekly rate for a minimum amount of mileage. The renter is charged for additional mileage but does not get credit for driving fewer miles than the minimum.

Other cost variables include the amount of time for which you want to rent the car. For example, if you want to rent a car for a holiday weekend, you may find that some agencies only lease their cars for a minimum of three days.

Other agencies offer special prices for weekend rentals, while some, primarily those in resort areas, where weekend travel is popular, charge less for rentals during the work week.

Also available occasionally are airline promotions including package deals on certain flights that allow the traveler to rent a car for a specified amount of time or for a certain number of miles at a special rate. Make sure the total cost of such a package does not exceed what you would pay to take another flight and make auto rental arrangements yourself once you reach your destination.

In addition to renting an auto from an agency rental fleet, you may want to consider making arrangements to drive a privately owned auto to your destination. Such cars often belong to people who are moving long distances and clearing out their cars. They may be home or own more than one car so need to have someone drive a car to a particular destination for them.

Such "drive-way" arrangements often are advertised in the classified ad sections of metropolitan newspapers. By driving someone else's car for them, you may be able to make enough money on the first half of your trip to pay for your return ticket on whatever mode of transportation you choose.

Whether you're renting a car for a one-day jaunt or a cross-country excursion or making arrangements to drive someone else's car to your destination, check on insurance provisions for the auto, yourself and your passengers and other property or people who might sustain damage or injury in case of an accident.

Many times the flat rates quoted by an agency don't include insurance, so be sure to figure this cost in when comparing prices. Also look for any other special restrictions when comparing contracts, such as limitations on who can drive the car and if you can take the car out of the state in which it has been rented.

Finally, inspect the condition of the car and note any dents or other damage on the contract before you sign it. Many times, you can sue arguments later about any damages for which you are responsible. Also check the spare tire, jack, lights, horn, radio and brakes and make sure all are in operating condition. If your rental agreement calls for gas to be furnished, make sure the tank is full. And make sure the mileage listed on the odometer is the same as that listed on the contract.

After all that, buckle up those seat belts before you leave the parking lot.

THEFT OF BANK BAG
Theft of between $800 and $1,000 in the bank bag of a St. Louis company, occurring last week at the apartment of Mark Shemwell, 2317a Washington Ave., was reported to authorities Tuesday.

MOTORCYCLIST HURT
Paul J. Costello, 34, a motorcyclist, was injured last week when his motorcycle left a driveway at 48 Villa Drive and hit the parked pickup truck of Michael Asadorian, 45 Villa. He was thrown to the pavement and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

After applications for the camp are made each girl will be sent a post card or will be contacted by telephone and told the exact time of the bus stop and return time nearest her home, Mrs. Clements noted.

Sentence in child molesting

Roger Dale Lovins, 19, of the 2200 block of Washington Ave., has been sentenced to serve 10 years in prison after he pleaded guilty to taking indecent liberties last year with an 8-year-old girl who subsequently contacted gonorrhea.

Lovins pleaded guilty April 27 before Associate

Judge Philip J. Rarick and was sentenced late last week.

Lovins surrendered voluntarily to Granite City police in October, 1980 and was charged. His net worth of $40,000 and he was ordered to submit to a blood analysis, according to court records.

First payment to Bi-State from 1/4-cent transit tax

The Madison County Transit District was to send a $110,000 check this week to Bi-State Development Corp. for partial payment of the $206,843 Bi-State says the district owes for bus service subsidies in the first quarter of 1981. The check is the first the district has sent to Bi-State from funds raised by the quarter-cent sales tax which went into effect Feb. 1.

Earlier this month the transit district received $170,656 from the state, representing the amount of money collected in one month by the transit tax. Checks for similar amounts are anticipated monthly by the transit district will pay the difference between its actual operating costs in Madison County and its income, including fares and the subsidy it receives from the state.

Barry Sykes, a Bi-State official who is coordinating transit finances with Madison County, told the transit board Monday that he expects bus service to increase from $206,843 to about $220,000 a quarter, due to inflationary factors on operating costs.

Bill Haine, chairman of the transit district's board, said he felt the jump of approximately $14,000 a quarter was a major jump and said Bi-State will have to provide Madison County with a more specific breakdown of actual operating costs on Madison County lines. "We don't want rough estimates," Haine said.

Sykes said future quarterly bills will have precise breakdowns for the transit board to study before approving payments to Bi-State.

Haine noted that the quarter-cent tax in Madison County is expected to raise about $1 million a year, and questioned whether Madison County money be supporting part of St. Clair County's transit needs after June 30, when the transit tax will end there.

St. Clair County residents, in an advisory referendum, voted to abolish the tax and the St. Clair County Transit Board voted to end it the last day of this month.

Monroe County is continuing to collect an eight-cent sales tax for transit needs, despite an advisory referendum which went against continuing the tax.

Apparently, Madison County's subsidy will be enough to qualify for a full state subsidy under guidelines passed by the Illinois legislature, which threatened to drastically curtail state subsidies to Madison and St. Clair counties unless local taxes were imposed to raise

Some St. Clair County officials say full bus service should continue there, since the county will have provided more than $800,000 to Bi-State before the tax is ended.

In other business, the Madison County Transit Board Monday was told by transit district manager Susan Schold that she and bus company representatives are working on a "general marketing" plan to better familiarize riders with routes and schedules.

About 2,000 bus stop signs are to be replaced with signs which indicate when buses will arrive and their destinations.

Displays also are being considered for Granite City, Collinsville, the county seat of Edwardsville and in St. Clair Square shopping center which would map bus lines in the district.

Haine said he felt Bi-State should do a better job in letting people know where buses stopped and when. The transit manager noted that Bi-State plans to try a new approach when it opens a new route to the Bethalto area—mailing route information to residents.

Grants help 2 projects

Two Madison County projects are among 35 which have been granted funds from Ralston Puring Co. to provide summer jobs for 186 St. Louis area teenagers.

Ralston Purina has announced the awarding of grants totaling $135,460 for teenage summer employment projects, bookkeeping and organizations. Those receiving funds were selected through competitive bidding of proposals by agencies submitted to the company this spring.

Winning agencies were selected on the basis of adult skill value of the proposed jobs, according to a company spokesman.

Youths will work 20 hours per day for 10 weeks in a wide variety of job descriptions, including pharmacy and hospital positions, bookkeeping and accounting, sales, repairs, skilled trades and legal assistant.

In Madison County, a total of $8,710 was granted for 13 jobs in the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Science Awareness Project, and $4,843 to provide six and one-half jobs for the Madison County Urban League.

John P. Baird, senior vice-president and corporate officer for social responsibility for the Ralston firm, commented, "With the public and major budget reductions in federal programs for teenage summer employment, we view our sponsorship of this 12th year of our Purina job program as a clear social imperative for the corporation."

"We know that the existence of such a corporate program gives the youngsters two primary benefits. In the short term, the job salaries will help the youths to return to school this fall and, hopefully, graduate next summer."

"We are very proud of this program. The young people who compete for the jobs and of what the public and private sectors can accomplish cooperatively," Baird said.

In addition to the St. Louis area, the company announced a total of 45 job grants totaling $208,382 in 21 states where Ralston Purina conducts major manufacturing operations, it was announced.

Carl Caldwell services today

Funeral services for Carl D. Caldwell, 46, of 865 Ashland Ave., Mitchell, were held at 1 p.m. today, June 4, at Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary, 2205 Pontoon Road.

Mr. Caldwell was found dead about noon Sunday, May 31, 1981, in a vacant building in St. Louis.

He had been beaten and shot in the head, authorities said. An investigation by the St. Louis police homicide division is continuing.

Mr. Caldwell had resided here for the past 28 years. He was born in Sperry, Okla. He was employed as an inspector at the General Motors plant in St. Louis and attended New Hope Baptist Church in Mitchell.

Among the survivors are his wife, Mrs. Shirley Caldwell; four sons, Austin, Craig, Rory and Kelly Caldwell, all of Granite City; one daughter, Melody Caldwell, at home; his mother, Mrs. Verbie Caldwell of Cline, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Lois Barnfield and Mrs. Carolyn Barrett, both of Cline, and Mrs. Phyllis Hale of Clay City, Ill.; and two grandchildren.

Burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

CITE COAL'S IMPACT ON TRANSPORTATION

Major investments in the transportation system serving Illinois will be needed if the state's coal production grows as expected during the 1980s, according to a new report by the Illinois Institute of Natural Resources. A survey of electric utilities, the largest consumers of coal, in Illinois and 12 other states reveals that they plan to use 67.8 million tons of Illinois coal in 1987, or 48 percent more than in 1977.

It was found that a major new market for Illinois coal has developed in the South, particularly in Georgia and Florida. Coupled with the anticipated rise in the use of coal mined in other states, this may significantly affect railroad, barge, truck and other transportation services.

To dedicate Odd Fellows housing unit

"Friendship Manor" a low cost housing project for senior citizens and the handicapped sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Illinois will be dedicated in Lincoln during a two day celebration on June 27 and 28.

Constructed under the section 202-8 program of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the complex provides 124 apartments for persons 62 years of age or handicapped adults who are able to maintain their own living quarters. This facility is open to all persons regardless of race, color, creed or national origin.

Apartments will consist of living room, kitchen, bedroom, full bath with tub and shower and storage area. All rooms are carpeted except bath and kitchen. Heating and air-conditioning will be individually controlled by each tenant. Stove and refrigerator will be furnished.

Smoke alarms and an emergency call system will be included. Public areas include a game room, lounge, library and craft room. A central kitchen and dining room provide one hot meal at noon five days per week for those who wish to purchase it.

The five story building, constructed at a cost of over six million will be operated by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, IOOF, through a non-profit corporation known as "Odd Fellow-Rebekah Housing, Inc."

Dedication activities will start on Saturday, June 27 with the conferring of degrees upon a large class of candidates. Special guests will include William H. England of New York, Sovereign Grand Master of the IOOF and Gloria Mundt of Indiana representing the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies. Fifty men from Hamilton, Ontario, Canada will participate in the IOOF Degree ceremony.

Following dinner, professional entertainment will be provided in the auditorium of Lincoln Community High School. Church Services will be held Sunday Morning in the Chapel at Lincoln Christian College.

Dr. Jack North, Assistant to the Bishop, United Methodist Church of Illinois will officiate. Flag presentation, ribbon cutting and dedicatory prayer will be followed by hours and open house at "Friendship Manor", 925 Primm Road in Lincoln. Participating in the ceremony will be state and national leaders of the IOOF. Bill Wilson, Mayor of Lincoln and Edward Madigan, Congressman of the 21st Congressional District.

Several members from the local Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges will attend the degree rally and dedication.

Tea, style show at Prather

Seventh and eighth students at Prather Junior High School entertained the sixth grade pupils, their parents, teachers and other guests at a tea and style show last week at the school.

Members of the food classes prepared and served cookies, nuts, punch and coffee to the guests. The clothing classes modeled garments made during the school term, including dresses, wrap-around skirts, tunics, pull-on skirts, gored and gathered skirts, blouses, tank tops, jackets and flared (bias-cut) skirts.

The show and tea were under the direction of faculty members, Roberta Cottrell and Allene Culp.

Among the Prather JHS students presenting the event were Michelle Bollinger, Nina Brock, Robin Burns, Tammy Chamberlain, Della Corbitt, Missy Dooley, Lisa Ishum, Donna Kulesza, Kim McCoy, Sheryl McGarity, Melissa Anderson.

Air Force offering college scholarships

High school students who will be seniors next fall should consider applying now for Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) scholarships, according to Col. Hugh D. McCracken Jr., Air Force ROTC registrar.

"Students' chances for selection increase by submitting their scholarship applications during the summer and early fall," said Col. McCracken.

Applications for the freshman scholarships beginning in the 1982-83 academic year now are available at the Departments of Aerospace Studies at any college or university having Air Force ROTC and at U.S. Air Force recruiting stations or students may write to the Office of Public Affairs, Air Force ROTC, Maxwell Air Force Base, AL, 36112.

An Air Force ROTC four-year scholarship provides payment of full tuition, books and most fees, plus a $100 a month stipend during each academic year. The scholarships can be used at approximately 600 colleges and universities which offer Air Force ROTC.

Last year, more than 15,000 scholarship applications were received, from which about 1,400 students were selected for scholarships this fall. "With so many applications, the emphasis is on early application and high quality students," Col. McCracken said.

Three selection boards meet each year, one in November, another in January and a final board in March. Approximately 50 percent of qualified students considered by the November 1980 board were awarded scholarships while the percentages selected by the January and March boards were considerably lower. The same is expected this year, Col. McCracken said.

Taking the American College Test (ACT) or Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) is required in the application process. Students may authorize their scores to be sent directly to the Four-Year Scholarship Branch Office of the Registrar, Air Force ROTC, Maxwell AFB, AL, 36112.

Minimum SAT scores required are 500 in mathematics and a composite score in mathematics and verbal of 1,000. For the ACT test, the minimum score is 19 in mathematics and a composite score of at least 22.

Students who are not selected for four-year scholarships may join ROTC in their freshman year and then apply for a lesser scholarship of up to 3½ years, Col. McCracken said. To be eligible for these scholarships, students must be members of the Air Force ROTC program, he added. Upon completion of degree requirements and the Air Force ROTC program, students are commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force with a minimum four-year active-duty obligation. For flying training candidates, the commitment is six years for pilots and five years for navigators after they receive their aeronautical ratings.

FOOD STAMPS TAKEN
About $100 worth of food stamps were stolen from the apartment of Sandra Collins, 2254 Washington Ave., during the weekend, she reported Monday. Entry was believed gained through a window and the stamps were taken from a dresser drawer. Nothing else is known to be missing.

8 Quad-City women are trained for construction

The Pre-Apprenticeship Training for Women in Construction program at Lewis and Clark Community College, Godfrey, conferred certificates on 38 graduates in ceremonies held at East Alton. Included were eight Quad-Cityans.

The Women in Construction Program began two years ago to train women in skilled trade and craft positions — work considered to be non-traditional for women.

The model project, a joint effort sponsored by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs, the Department of Labor, LCCC and area labor councils, has concluded its second and final year.

Area women who completed the program and the certificates they received are: granite city — Sandra Buckingham, roofing and carpentry; Janet Childers, painting; Sherry Gibson, roofing and carpentry; and Sandra Harper, roofing and carpentry.

MADISON — Rosetta Barton, roofing and carpentry; Cindy Large, welding, sheet metal and pattern drafting; and Leslie Large, roofing and carpentry.

VENICE — Eva Berry, roofing and carpentry.

Power-steering fluid should be checked periodically as recommended in the owner's manual of every automobile. The dipstick, attached to the cap on the filler neck, should be wiped clean, then reinserted and the cap tightened. Loosen the cap and withdraw the dipstick. Pour in power-steering fluid only if the fluid level on the stick is on or below the add mark. To avoid overfilling, add the fluid gradually, then test its level again. Should frequent filling be required, have the entire system pressure tested professionally to determine where it is leaking or if there are other problems.

Valuations revised to avoid injustice and foster sound tax base — Barton

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record
(First of a series)

Many tax injustices have been remedied or avoided through issuance of certificates of error in Madison County. Supervisor of Assessments James W. Barton said Thursday evening in defending himself against State's Attorney Donald Weber's assertion that he should be fired.

Avoiding any personal criticism of the county prosecutor, Barton, a Democrat reappointed to a four-year term in January 1981, said Republican Weber "naturally wants to replace any and all Democratic officeholders he can."

Barton recalled that the state's attorney received enthusiastic campaign help in the November 1980 election from members of the Eastern Madison County Organizing Committee, an increasingly active group of rural property owners.

"Easterners" enjoyed extremely low assessments before the county began its aggressive equalization efforts, and the organizing group may have selfish motivation in opposing continued service by the assessment supervisor, Barton added.

In defending the use of certificates, Barton said they were invaluable when the county greatly expanded corporate personal property valuations; this was prior to the time when their total was used as the permanent amount that would be replaced by corporate income taxes.

This expansion prior to the tax replacement will forever benefit the county's governmental agencies and citizens; the rapid, massive work that it required inevitably caused many errors, later corrected by certificates, Barton told the Press-Record.

He cited instances in which various certificates of error on real estate, in his opinion, averted financial calamities. This short-term compassion, he said, proved to be of long-range benefit in bolstering the county's base of tax-producing, economically healthy properties.

Barton said use of certificates of error at the county level has been widespread in Illinois for many years and still is, because there are so many inequities in township-determined assessments.

He reported that Madison County has resorted to certificates on "less than one percent of the parcels of real estate, compared to 20 percent in counties like Randolph."

He added, "We felt, and still feel, that certificates constituted virtually the only avenue to help people who were overassessed."

"Every certificate issued by me or the Board of Review was to correct an injustice on a tax bill. If the property happened to belong to a politician or a preacher or a friend of mine, it nevertheless was to correct unfairness in their taxes."

"I have a lot of friends. Does that mean they cannot receive a fair reassessment just because they happen to be a friend of mine?"

Describing current statute interpretations as too rigid, and in urgent need of revision, Barton said limiting of certificates of error "correcting computational mistakes" "eliminates the only vehicle we had to correct injustices. Now, once a taxpayer receives his bill, there is nothing he can do about it."

The call for Barton to be ousted cited grand jury inquiries and a study of Madison County real estate assessments. The study was made by the Illinois Law Enforcement Department's Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI).

Barton told the DCI that reductions of proposed assessments "are made many times according to the circumstances surrounding the individual, so as not to excessively tax that individual or that property."

"Many times an individual has a grievance with the Board of Review in reference to his property tax after the tax bills are already out."

"The only way he can receive any justice and lowering of his assessment is through the certificate of error."

In years past, documentation sometimes was not required to accompany a certificate, the study determined. But, at present, "documentation is attached to each certificate and the certificates are being acted upon by a judge of the court in Madison County."

Even though all or most of the certificates of error contain Barton's signature, in many cases he does not initiate a certificate, he told the DCI. Certificates are initiated by the township assessor, by members of the Board of Review, and by Barton, he said.

The DCI noted, "Barton stated that the certificates of error he has issued have been, in his own mind, backed up by either his personal knowledge of the property, or by some type of documentation presented to him by either the taxpayer or a board member, or information provided by the property tax record cards."

Among the property records reviewed by the DCI were those of the Nameoki Village Shopping Center on Nameoki Road in Granite City.

For the 1974 tax year, the assessed valuation was $485,170. For 1975, $530,330 was proposed, changed to $401,000.

For the 1976 tax year, the assessor's figure of $582,950 was reduced to $235,000. And for 1977, the valuation was set at $574,200 and cut to $235,000.

Granite City Assessor Von Dee Cruse told the DCI that he could "in this particular situation understand the reduction by the Board of Review."

"In 1974, Jim Henderson, owner, lost his largest renter, W. T. Grant's, and soon lost other renters from his shopping center."

"Cruse stated that this being a financial burden on Henderson, the Board of Review reduced the taxes on the property until the property was again rented. Cruse stated he believes the property went back to the full assessment as of the 1978 tax year, due to the fact that new renters had been obtained by Henderson."

Property taxes paid by the Nameoki Village Shopping Center totaled $32,225 for the 1974 tax year, $26,899 for 1975, $15,249 for 1976 and $16,339 for 1977.

Next questioned by the DCI was Henderson, who said that "on Oct. 1, 1974, the Grant's store, biggest renter in the shopping center, went bankrupt (nationally) and closed. Soon afterward, he lost other renters due to the loss of business from Grant's."

"He stated that with the loss of revenue, he contacted his attorney concerning his taxes. Prior to Grant's leaving, he had been paying about $30,000 in taxes. Because of the loss of revenue, he could no longer afford to pay this high amount."

"His attorney contacted the Board of Review and requested a reduction in the taxes until the property could be re-rented. Certificates of error were issued for the tax years 1975-76-77, reducing the taxes due by nearly half."

"Henderson was asked if he was going to appeal his 1978 taxes which were due currently (Aug. 2, 1979, was the interview date). He stated that from January to April 1978, he had re-rented the space in the shopping center and he felt he presently had sufficient revenue to pay the taxes that were due."

Barton, interviewed Oct. 31, 1979, cited the departure of W. T. Grant's and commented that "without reducing the property assessment, the individuals who owned Nameoki Village would have not been able to pay their taxes, and possibly would have lost their buildings."

"At this time, the property is being rented again and the taxes will be back on the books at an amount which is equitable for the property."

Barton served as the assessor of Granite City Township, an elective office, from 1966 to December 1972, and has been Madison County supervisor of assessments since Jan. 1, 1973.

He told the DCI that his county duties "are to ensure that the township assessors receive their tax books during January of each year, that those books are returned to the county office during May, and that all corrections are made to those books prior to forwarding the assessment information to the Springfield tax assessment office."

"In addition," he said, he is "responsible to ensure that all the townships within Madison County are equally assessed."

"According to Barton, he has the responsibility to ensure that the job is done correctly; however, he has no power over the township assessors to cause them to do their job of assessing in the proper manner."

"Many of the townships are small and some township assessors do nothing to their books, leaving Barton's office to complete the books."

"The assessors are elected individuals in each township. Many of them know little about tax assessing, and many have no training or education in the field of property assessments."

"There are assessors who are paid a good yearly salary and are reluctant to make the necessary and proper changes to the properties within their township."

State investigators concluded that corrective procedures followed in Madison County at one time varied from Chapter 120, Section 526, of the Illinois Revised Statutes.

Section 526 as quoted by the DCI relates that "in any county containing less than 1,000,000 inhabitants, if-at any time before collection or order of sale is rendered in any proceeding to collect or to enforce the collection of taxes, based upon any assessment of any property belonging to any person or corporation—the assessor, supervisor of assessments, or board of assessors, as the case may be, shall discover an error or mistake (other than errors of judgment as to the valuation of any real or personal property)...."

"In such assessment, he or they shall issue to the person or corporation erroneously assessed a certificate setting forth the nature of such error

Shrine circus scheduled in GC 3 nights

The annual Ainad Shrine circus parade, customarily one of the biggest public events of the year, will be held in Granite City Tuesday, June 9, to herald the Shrine circus which will perform on the following Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The event is being planned as the "biggest parade ever" and will feature a total of 60 marching units including bands, floats, Shrine motorized units and Shrine groups.

Ainad Southern Illinois Shriners also will stage parades in Belleville and in DuQuoin, Ill., in connection with circus presentations that also will be held in those cities.

The Belleville parade will precede the Granite City event on Friday, June 5, followed by circus performances on June 6, 7 and 8. The DuQuoin parade will be held Saturday morning, June 13, followed by circus performances Saturday morning and Sunday.

Trophies will be awarded for the best floats in the parades and since there are two categories, the "Circus" theme and "Salute to America," competition is expected to be high.

The admission price for the circus will be $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. There are no reserved seats.

Orville Hommert is the parade marshal and has called for the parade line to start at 6 p.m. for a 7:30 starting time at 25th Street and Madison Avenue.

Many major circus acts will be presented in the Shrine circus which is presented by promoter George Hubler. Some of the acts are among the top five in the circus world.

Acts will include performances by George Barreda in an aerial act, eight full grown African lions in a big cage act, tightwire acts by Sir Christopher James, and Johnny Zoppe and a monkey review.

The Granite City circus will be presented at Tri-City Speedway at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 10, and again at 7:30 on Thursday and Friday, June 11 and 12.

Parade officials announced Friday a lineup of the 60 marching units, which will include a provost car at the head of the parade, followed by Police Chief Ronald Veizer and the Parade Marshal Hommert. Mayor Paul Schuler will occupy a fourth car.

Committee to study improving town hall as a meeting site

The Granite City Township Hall is a beautiful building, but was not specifically designed to hold business meetings, the Granite City Council has learned.

This spring, the council agreed to hold all possible council meetings in the township hall at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, rather than in city hall, so the handicapped can attend the meetings.

However, moving the meetings into the larger hall has created some problems. There are echoes and the aldermen are finding it difficult to hear each other during the meeting. The audience and the press also have objected to an inability to hear much of what is said.

Aldermen are seated at three separate tables, making it difficult to pass correspondence, ordinances and other documents to members of the various committees, so the aldermen have to get up from one table and walk to another to conduct business. That creates constant distractions, witnesses say.

Use of microphones at each table and on the head table for the mayor, city clerk and city attorney have helped somewhat, but add to the echoes in the large hall.

Mayor Paul Schuler agreed Tuesday night that there are some problems meeting in the spacious hall and said he wanted to appoint a committee "to look into arrangements to perhaps make the meetings more suitable in the town hall."

He appointed Alderman Sam Whitmer as chairman, assisted by Aldermen Casmer Skubish and Sharon Perjak. Schuler concluded, "It leaves a little bit to be desired as far as the arrangements, but I think it is a super place to meet."

New squad car for Pontoon

The good news and bad news for the Pontoon Beach police, the village board was told last week.

Officers now are driving in a brand-new Dodge Diplomat squad car, equipped with first aid equipment and fire extinguisher, and have full lawful authority assist injured persons or emergencies. That is the good news. The bad news is that the village soon will lose two of its police dispatchers when Manpower cuts take effect June 12, and the board has not decided how to remedy the shortage.

Village Clerk Mary Warren noted that the new 1981 police car has been received and the board approved payment of $143 for liability and collision insurance for the car.

Trustee Robert Abel, a member of the police committee, said that first aid kits, blankets and fire extinguishers for the police cars, ordered last week, have arrived.

Mrs. Warren read a legal opinion from village attorney Robert Hennessee which said that police officers are free of liability in rendering emergency care to the injured and in danger, except for incidents in which the officer displays willful or wanton misconduct.

Mrs. Warren also noted she contacted all service stations in the village for bids on gasoline and automobile repairs for the village police cars and vehicles.

She read a bid from Pontoon Mobil offering to sell gasoline to the village ranging from $1.299 a gallon for regular gas to $1.459 for super premium. It also bid $6.50 per car wash and various prices for other jobs.

Mrs. Warren said a proposal from Pontoon Fina last week asked the village to pay pump prices for gasoline, but offering free washes for three police cars once a week, waxing of each monthly and reduce prices for oil, oil filters and grease jobs.

The two bids were turned over to Loren Madison, chairman of the police committee, to discuss with Chief of Police Rosewell Bennett Jr. when Bennett returns from his vacation.

Action on replacing two Title II-D service employees (police dispatchers) whose terms under the Manpower grant program are expiring, also will await Bennett's return. A letter reminding the village of the Manpower program's cut was read at the Tuesday night meeting.

The board concurred with the recommendations of the village's zoning board of appeals and zoning commissioner and granted the zoning requests for two village families.

Joseph E. and Kimberly Humphrey were granted a special use permit to place a mobile home at 4152 Division St., and Harold Rush was granted rezoning for the corner of 4136 Pontoon Road from residential zoning to B-1 business zoning.

Rush announced plans to construct a 40-by-60-foot building for vehicles and supplies related to his janitorial service.

The board also granted permission to Central Baptist Church to subdivide their property in Quiet Valley's Fifth Addition. The approval was signed by President Paul Bennett and Mrs. Warren.

A proposal from Mutual of Omaha Insurance Co. on a health and hospitalization program for village employees was turned over to finance and personnel committees for study.

A motion to amend the liquor control ordinance to create a Class B club liquor license for Soccer for Fun failed after President Bennett voted no to break a tie among the other board members.

The board did agree to reduce the maximum number of regular liquor licenses from six to five. There has been an unused license since Dal-A-Pizza went out of business some time ago.

APARTMENT COMPLEX at Klein Street and Bissell Avenue in Venice, estimated to cost $3.4 million to construct, is taking shape as carpenters have constructed walls and are now proceeding with second-floor construction. Floor

Sewer finances at issue

By LISA LUTZ
of the Press-Record

Differences of opinion were expressed Thursday by Madison County Special Sewer Committee Chairman Louis Whitsett and Assistant State Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith, as to the financial future of the sewer district.

Despite the district's plans to raise the current $25 tap-on fee to $400 Jan. 1, 1982, the sewer district still is faced with dire financial problems.

Committee members are hopeful that the increase will encourage residents who are required to hook up to the sewers to do so before the deadline and will generate more money for the district.

Although the district expects to receive as much as $100,000 from the Environmental Protection Agency, Smith contends that this will not remedy the financial situation. "It will not solve all the problems," Smith said.

The EPA has withheld $600,000, or five percent of the sewer construction grant (which is standard procedure) since the project was initiated.

S.M. Wilson, contractor for the project, has claims on at least $700,000 of that money, according to Smith. The money will not be released to Wilson until the sewer committee is satisfied with the completion of the project.

Apparently, some property marking stakes that were removed during sewer construction have not been replaced, and the board has indicated that S.M. Wilson may be responsible for the replacement of the stakes. Forcing the contractor to replace the markers could result in extensive, costly court confrontations, Smith maintains.

Whitsett's belief that the EPA funds will relieve the district of a large portion of the financial burden is "optimistic," in Smith's opinion.

Whitsett also maintains that money derived from sewer maintenance and tap-on fees will pay the "legitimate" bills which are owed to S.M. Wilson. Smith, however, indicated that this money must be used for operating expenses in the budget he has been preparing.

County Auditor Pete Fields and Smith are making budgeting efforts, conservatively estimating that there will be 3,500 tapped-on sewer customers by the end of the year.

This budget will be submitted to the county finance committee at a meeting this week. "This way I can present a factual financial picture to the (finance) board," Smith commented.

Smith is examining all available alternatives which could generate more money for the sewer district, so its obligations can be met.

and the cause or causes which operated to produce the same....

"Said certificate, when properly endorsed by the majority of the Board of Review, showing their concurrence therein, and not otherwise, may be used in evidence in any court of competent jurisdiction."

"And when so introduced in evidence such certificate shall become a part of the court record and shall not be removed from the files except on an order of the court."

Section 527 states that "the supervisor of assessments or the board of assessors of any county having fewer than 1,000,000 inhabitants, or the township assessor of any township in any such county, may in any year revise an assessment and correct such assessment as shall appear to him or them to be just."

"A notice of any such revision shall be given to the taxpayer whose property assessment has been changed."

Announce June festivals

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

"There'll be dancing. Dancing in the streets." Those words from an old Mamus and Pappas rock song may set the stage for events locally in the month of June. Mid-June will be a time for outdoor entertainment, singing and dancing in Granite City, persons attending last week's Granite City Council meeting were told.

The Lincoln Athletic Club plans to hold its fourth annual Lincoln Place picnic and street dance Sunday, June 14, from noon to 11 p.m. and Mayor Paul Schuler announced that the second annual, Mayor's Music Festival will be held in Memorial Park at Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues June 10, 11 and 12.

The mayor's event will feature big bands, a German band and rock music in addition to food and refreshments during three days in the park. Additional plans will be announced soon in the Press-Record.

The Lincoln Place event will offer music, entertainment, ethnic foods and refreshments. The council agreed to have Niedringhaus Avenue blocked to traffic from Olive Street to Poplar Street between noon and 11 p.m. Sunday, June 14.

Traffic will be detoured through Chicago and St. Louis avenues, it was explained.

Alderman Jake Varadian, president of the Lincoln Athletic Club, noted that the event has drawn several hundred people each year for the past several years and has been "quite successful in the past."

The Mayor's Music Festival also drew hundreds each day of its run last year and Schuler said he was pleased with the turnout and the event that he planned to make it an annual part of spring in Granite City.

Cleanup program begins June 3

The Granite City Sanitation Department will hold a cleanup drive, beginning June 3. This will give homeowners an opportunity to dispose of large items that may have been neglected during the Chamber of Commerce cleanup drive last month.

The drive is tentatively scheduled to start in the 7th Ward, and cards will be placed on the front doors of those homes, informing residents of pickup dates. The sanitation department plans to start in that area and remain there until it is finished.

Trash must be containerized, and residents are being reminded that no hazardous material, such as chemicals or paint, will be removed by the sanitation department. Fallen tree limbs or other brush is to be removed by the street department.

The program is in conjunction with the mayor's student summer employment program, and this cleanup effort will utilize those employees.

Residents will be informed of pickup times two days in advance by the cards on doors. Further information may be obtained by calling 452-6220.

Flowers & Gifts

by Ron Kelih

Roses have played a large part in English history. One of the most famous wars in the western world, immortalized by several of Shakespeare's historical plays was the War of the Roses. The white rose was the symbol of the House of York and the red rose the House of Lancaster. The struggle for power between the two houses began in 1455 and ended with the accession of Henry VII of Lancaster. Order some today.

Roses are perfect in many ways. They are beautiful in corsages, long stemmed placed in a vase, or carried by a bride. Roses at BETTY AND BOB'S FLOWERS AND GIFTS, 2156 Pontoon Road, 877-3833 are received regularly from Four Seasons in Litchfield, Illinois, by refrigerated truck. Steven Connor will arrange them into a beautiful floral display, especially for you. Open: Mon. thru Sat., 9 a.m. 'til 5 p.m.

Postpone Chamber Playday

Rain forced the postponement of today's scheduled Playday of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and the event will be held Monday, June 8, instead.

According to David Knollman, chairman of the event, this morning's thundershowers and heavy rain made the golfing portion of the event impossible. Since 120 of the 180 persons signed up for the Playday also signed up for golf, it was decided to postpone tonight's dinner, as well as the golf, for one week.

Knollman said reservations still are available for golf and next Monday night's dinner. Tickets costing $20 a person for the dinner or $40 a person for golf, a golf cart and the dinner, may be purchased at the Chamber office.

Music Under Stars rehearsals to start

Rehearsals for the Granite City Park District's "Music Under the Stars" summer choral program will begin Thursday, June 4, it was announced today by Mrs. Mary Ann Bright, vocal music director at Granite City High School South.

Mrs. Bright, who will direct the summer choruses again this year, is inviting anyone interested in singing to join in the program. She noted previous chorus experience is not a requirement.

The series of free concerts will be presented on Tuesday nights in the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion, starting June 16, and will feature sacred, folk, popular, patriotic and song selections, with an emphasis on music with audience appeal.

All concerts will begin at 8 p.m. The remaining concert dates are June 30, July 14 and July 28.

5 percent utility tax for Madison

Madison City Council members have decided to impose a five percent tax on utility companies in Madison in an effort to raise funds so the city can cope with inflation.

While reviewing a statement of revenues and expenditures for the 1981 fiscal year, city council members determined that imposing a five percent tax would generate additional city revenues. When the tax plan first was introduced, Mike Sasys said in a letter to the council that he believes this tax will be fair to citizens and business.

Venice adopts new school use policy

By VALERIE EVDEN of the Press-Record

The Venice Board of Education approved new policy procedures concerning use of school facilities or equipment at its meeting last week.

The new policy states— "Only school district residents will be given consideration and/or permission to use school facilities or equipment free of charge and any excess cost which may accrue to the district as a result of use of the facilities will be charged to the users and payable in advance."

Another change in the current policy states: "All requests for the use of school facilities or equipment must be submitted to a summer nutritional program from June 8 until the end of July, subject to possible interruptions while the floor is repaired."

It was noted the EOC had requested use of the kitchen from June 8 until Aug. 21.

In other action: The board accepted the resignation of Elizabeth Brawley, secretary at the Venice High School for the past 15 years.

—Accepted a bid of $2,883 from Butler Floor Co., Granite City, to replace the vinyl tile floor in the main area of the school cafeteria.

More than 40 percent of the present floor tile was heavily damaged when a hot water pipe burst during a weekend about two months ago.

A check for $2,836 has been received from the insurance company to compensate the district, Supt. of Schools Robert Vickers said.

Agreed to recover the kitchen floor at a cost of $490 at the same time that work is being done in the cafeteria.

—Approved submitting the 1981-82 Title 1 application, prepared by Supt. Vickers, to the state.

The administrator said Title 1 funds expected in the next fiscal year will be about 80 percent of the amount received this year and "will not be quite enough" to cover the expenses of the two staff members, whose salaries are reimbursed through program funds.

The Venice School District received a total of $49,950 in Title 1 money in 1980-81.

10 seek board post

Ten Granite City residents have applied for appointment to a vacant seat on the Granite City Board of Education.

The vacancy, created when Board President Stephen Saltich resigned to serve as an alderman, is to be filled by the board of education during a special meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 9.

The person selected to fill the vacancy will serve the remainder of Saltich's unexpired term, extending to November, 1983.

Applicants are Edward Dewey Melton, James W. Foley, John F. Tritschuh, Floyd Peterson, Norma Mendoza, G. W. Sand, Richard Fry, Selma Nelson, Laymond McGee and Valerie Stevens.

There is some question whether Melton, 42, a former board member who was defeated in a bid for re-election last year, is eligible for the appointment.

Legal rulings demand that since Saltich was a resident of the city, his vacancy must be filled by an urban member, rather than an urban resident. Melton resides at 2509 Westmoreland Drive, which is outside of the city limits, but activities are underway to have four lots, including his, annexed to the city before the school board selects a replacement for Saltich.

The city council voted to annex the properties last week, but was informed that the annexations would have to be formalized in ordinances tomorrow night.

However, a legal notice published by the school district establishing the "ground rules" for applying states that applicants must reside within the corporate limits of the city of Granite City and applications must have been submitted by Thursday, May 28.

On that date, when Melton was an "applicant," he was not a city resident, some are contending.

Other qualifications listed in the legal notice included citizenship, a minimum age of 18 and being a resident of the state and the school district for one year prior to applying.

Kahoks' bats wake up, bury North

DAN PATTERSON, Granite City North second baseman, flies high to complete a throw to first base for a double play Saturday during his team's loss to Collinsville in the semifinals of the Granite City South Class AA Sectional. Collinsville was set to play Centralia today for the title, but the game has been postponed until tomorrow because of rain. Todd Miller slides in for Collinsville.

By RICK WELLS
for the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY —
Collinsville coach Russ Keene has said all season long that sooner or later the Kahoks were going to break loose from the hex that seemed to have an iron grip on their aluminum bats.

Kent Parker's three-run homer in the third inning of Saturday's Granite City South Class AA Sectional semifinal game against Granite City North helped keep Keene true to his words. Parker's 330-foot blast tied the game and opened the floodgates as the Kahoks went on to defeat the Steelers, 6-4.

Collinsville now advances to the sectional championship game which was scheduled for today against Centralia, which defeated Belleville East in the second game Saturday, 6-3. The Orphans are the only team now standing between Collinsville, the defending state champ, and a second trip to the state finals to be held Thursday and Friday at Langhief Park in Springfield.

"We didn't have the pitching today and we didn't have the defense," said North Coach Bob Siegmeyer. "The Collinsville hitters were stronger than the Granite North pitchers, and our pitchers didn't get a lot of help."

Two Steeler errors both resulted in runs to further help the Kahoks' cause. Add to that Collinsville's eight hits—including two doubles, a triple and Parker's home run—and that spells trouble for Granite City.

"It's about time," Keene said. "We've needed a big hit like Parker's for a long time. It's a good solid hit. It changes things. It gets everybody up."

It's not like the Kahoks needed help getting up. They only faced elimination from the very first inning. North hopped on senior fireballer Jeff McDaniel for three runs in the top of the first.

McDaniel put himself in trouble by walking the lead-off batter, Jeff Puryear. Designated hitter Brian Corey then singled Puryear over to second. McDaniel really out himself in trouble when catcher Darren DeWet tried to bunt the runners into scoring position. McDaniel fielded the perfect bunt, but threw wildly to first base, allowing one run to score.

After Rick Buer struck out, Dan Patterson promptly dashed McDaniel into the hole he'd dug for himself by doubling into the left-centerfield gap, driving home two more runs.

And that's when the hitting hex took over the Kahoks' bats. Todd Miller and Rod Woods each singled to start Collinsville's first inning. But after Parker flied out to center, Steve Blumner hit a line shot right at shortstop Mark Hessler, who promptly doubled-up Woods at first base.

ARMISTICE SIGNED
An armistice was signed on Dec. 3, 1912, between Turkey, Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro.

In the second inning starting pitcher Rick Takhmajian walked the first two batters, but got out of trouble when McDaniel flied to left and Carl Luehman threw out Alan Cooper trying to go third on the tag-up.

"I was worried," Keene said. "You're going to have to earn some runs to get back in the game against North." Takhmajian helped the Kahoks earn their first three runs by walking both Robert Sanabria and Miller to lead off the third. After Woods struck out, Parker took a 2-0 count fastball over the left-centerfield fence.

"In this game you can't walk people. You just can't walk people," Keene said. "Especially the lead-off man. You've gotta make them hitters."

But it wasn't walks that hurt the Steelers in the fourth. Collinsville's Kent Vartanian hopped on another Takhmajian fastball for a double to lead off the inning.

That's when Paul Barrington was called in to bail North out.

An error, however, put men on the corners and a balk by Barrington allowed one run to score. Miller's RBI-single and Woods' RBI-double then put Collinsville the driver's seat with a comfortable 6-3 lead.

North threatened in the sixth when DeFew doubled and Buer singled him home. But the Kahoks came back in their sixth with two runs on a triple by McDaniel, a single and another North error. McDaniel's triple got down despite Buer's valiant effort at a diving catch.

Corral 4-0 after doubleheader sweep

GRANITE CITY — The Corral Cowboys of Granite City ran their Inter-City Baseball League record to 4-0 here Sunday with a doubleheader sweep of Edwardsville at Wilson Park, 11-2 and 3-2.

The two games were as different as night and day. Corral needed a superb pitching performance from starter Doug Rains — and got it. He held Edwardsville to three hits, all in the third inning when Edwardsville scored both its runs.

"The difference in the first game and the second was pitching," said Corral manager Ken Crawford. "Their pitcher was pretty good, too."

And how. Edwardsville starter Ken Scheibel scored seven hits and had a 2-1 lead going into the bottom of the sixth inning. But that's when Corral's comeback started.

After shortstop Mike Robertson grounded out leading off, Dan Hagenbrock stroked a triple to deep left-centerfield. Jeff Tretter, who switched to Corral this season from McDonald's team, then singled him home with the tying run. Tretter then stole second and scored the winning run when Dan Fiechte singled.

"Rains had a little control problem, but when he was getting the ball over, they weren't hitting it," said Crawford. "The big thing in the third inning was a couple walks mixed in with two hits."

V.P. Run is set

ST. LOUIS — Amateur runners from throughout the United States are invited to take part in the V. P. Fair Run in St. Louis on Sunday, July 5, at 7:30 a.m.

One of the contestants will be Frank Shorter of Boulder, Colorado, who was winner of the Gold Medal in the 1972 Olympic Marathon in Munich. Shorter is generally recognized as being one of those principally responsible for the running craze in the United States which started in the 1970's and has shown no sign of diminishing.

The Run will be one of the major features of the V. P. Fair, an epic three-day civic festival to be held July 3, 4 and 5 at the St. Louis riverfront. The St. Louis Track Club will administer the races, and they will be sponsored by the Bel Air Hilton and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

There will be a 2000-meter race and a 10,000-meter race. Both will start at the west end of Eads Bridge, near the Bel Air Hilton, and will finish on Wharf Street on the Mississippi Riverfront below the Gateway Arch. The courses will be on downtown streets, with the 10,000 meter course including a leg out Market Street with a turnaround at Compton Avenue.

Illinois construction outlook now brighter

The Illinois construction picture is showing a substantial revival, according to the May economic data sheets released by the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA). The state's unemployment rate also dropped one-half percent in April, it was noted.

March construction data, the latest available, showed Illinois contracts for future construction were up 65 percent over a year ago, while contracts nationwide increased by only 27 percent during the same period.

March contracts for future residential construction totaled $126 million; non-residential contracts, $251 million; and non-building contracts—bridges, roads, etc.—$482 million.

These dollar figures represent increases over March 1980 of 146 percent and 55 percent, and a decrease of three percent, respectively.

For the first three months of 1981, total construction in Illinois was two percent ahead of 1980 activity.

Construction industry analysts and DCCA spokesmen predicted substantial increases in Illinois construction activity several months ago, and noted that such increases would bode well for the state's economy.

"Construction activity is among the most important economic indicators," Wally Biermann, chief of DCCA research, said, "and recent data suggest that the state's building industries are coming to life."

The Jan. 22 issue of the magazine Engineering Record ranked Illinois fourth among the states in future office construction; ninth in manufacturing facilities construction; and fifth in total planned construction.

"New construction activity, itself, means thousands of new jobs immediately," Biermann said, "and construction of office and manufacturing facilities obviously means new service and industrial jobs in the future."

Construction industry leaders expect substantial construction activity to be apparent in late 1981 and to continue well into 1982.

Even though the Illinois unemployment rate dropped one-half of one percent in April to 8.5 percent, the U.S. rate remained unchanged at the 7.3 percent March figure.

Three Illinois urban areas—Bloomington, Champaign and Springfield—had March unemployment rates below the national rate, and 14 counties were at or below the U.S. March rate.

"It is Illinois' status as an industrial giant that is contributing to the state's unemployment rate," Biermann said.

"The current state of the economy, nationally, has significantly inhibited industrial production and there have been heavy layoffs."

"As the economy improves, we expect the unemployment situation in Illinois to improve also. Illinois is among the most prosperous states when the

Heartworm in dogs can be prevented

"Dog owners can save their pets pain and suffering from canine heartworm if they act early enough and take those pets in to their local veterinarian for some preventive medicine," according to Dr. J. D. Noyes, D.V.M. of Barrington, Ill.

Dr. Noyes, for a number of years, has been chairman of the canine heartworm committee of the Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association (ISVMA), spearheading a research program and a public information service about the disease.

"A simple blood test is usually enough to tell if a dog is free of adult heartworms," Dr. Noyes said, "and medication can be prescribed to keep your dog free."

"If heartworms are found," the veterinarian said, "treatment can still be prescribed that in most cases will restore a dog to health."

"Dog owners can suspect heartworms," Dr. Noyes said, "if their pets show signs of coughing more than usual—especially if the dog coughs up blood—or if the dog seems to tire easily, acts listless, if he has difficulty in breathing, or if his coat seems unusually rough."

The common mosquito—any one of some 30 varieties—is responsible for the spread of canine heartworm. And the time to take preventative action is before the mosquito season is in full swing.

Any cruising mosquito can take a tiny drop of blood from an already-infected dog and, with that blood, take into its own body a number of microscopic immature heartworms. These incubate in the mosquito for about two weeks, and when the mosquito bites another dog, the tiny heartworms are passed on.

The infective larvae migrate to the dog's heart where they reach adult size in about six months.

Once the heartworms reach adult size, they are awesome things—long, white worms, 6 to 14 inches in length and the diameter of lead in a pencil. It is easy to understand that when they crowd into the right side of a dog's heart and surrounding vessels, they are going to shut off the flow of your dog's blood, impairing his circulation and cause serious damage to your dog's heart, lungs, liver and kidneys.

"Years ago," Dr. Noyes said, "canine heartworm disease was found mostly in the warm, moist areas of the South and along the eastern seaboard, but as the larvae of the worm conditioned itself to cooler climates, the disease spread north and across the country."

The Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association recommends that dog owners ask their local veterinarians about the prevalence of the disease in their area because, as Dr. Noyes says, "it seems to appear in pockets."

Wherever communities have poor or limited abatement programs, dog owners have to be especially cautious.

"And a little bit of caution, the veterinarian said, 'might save a valuable hunting dog, a hard-working farm dog, or a much-loved family pet.'"

If you're looking for something a little different in the way of a party, why not try a beer tasting? With literally hundreds of domestic brands and some 140 imports, the variety—and possibilities—become incredible. The first thing to do in preparation for a beer-tasting, however, is to decide on what types of beer to test. The types—ale, lager or stout, for example and the number of different types is up to you, although six to eight is a desirable maximum. Have plenty of clean glasses on hand; each tasting should be from a clean glass. Long stem glasses, like pilsner glasses are best to control temperature. Keep all the beers at the same uniform temperature, and pour down the side of the glass to control the head. Beers should be tested for visual appearance, aroma and flavor. Have plenty of crackers, dry toast or mild cheese on hand to clear the palate between tastings and have fun!

Paint program deadline June 1

June 12 is the deadline for the submission of applications for the Granite City paint program.

The paint program, which is in coordination with the mayor's office and the Madison County Community Development Office (MCCDO), is designed to aid senior citizens and low income families, who can substantially increase income levels and residency requirements. The necessity of conditions will be established before painting begins.

The program is limited to cleaning, scraping and painting with white paint and is scheduled to continue for a two month period.

Senior citizens applications are available at the office of Nelson Hagner, Mayor, and Mrs. Joe (Irm) Zimmer.

2060 Delmar Ave. Other applications may be obtained at the mayor's office.

Zimmer graduate: from West Point

Second Lieutenant Paul Joseph Zimmer U.S. Army graduated from the United States Military Academy in West Point New York, Wednesday, May 27.

The former Granite City resident graduated with honors and now resides in Staunton, Ill.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Mildred) Zimmer, also of Staunton. Grandparents are the Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Hubert of Granite City, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe (Irm) Zimmer.

General education graduation June 5

Graduation exercises for Belleville Area College GED (General Education Development) students will be held at 7 p.m. June 5.

About 600 students who completed GED classes and testing during the 1980-81 school year will be recognized at the ceremony, which will be in the new gymnasium at the college's main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

Graduates include those who participated in nine-week CETA (Comprehensive Employment Training Act) classes, 16-week GED classes, and senior citizen classes.

Roy Petrilli, assistant state administrator of GED with the Illinois State Board of Education, Springfield, will give the address.

Larry Schmalenberger, dean of general studies and community services, will present the class. Martha O'Malley, regional superintendent of schools in St. Clair County, will award certificates.

No winner in flag contest

A "Flag Waving" contest in which $100 was to be awarded to a resident picked at random if the resident was flying the American flag at his home, was held in conjunction with Memorial Day services at Wilson Park Monday.

Steve Konkovich who originated the contest a year ago said the local resident whose name was drawn was not flying the flag at his residence, so there was no winner and the cash prize was not awarded.

No winner was selected in last year's contest. Konkovich said another selection will be made next year.

MCINTYRE VISITS FAMILY IN GC

McIntyre, 23, is employed as traffic manager at Cooley Inc., in Yorba Linda.

Colonial offers 'vacation vaults'

If you are going on vacation and do not know what to do with some of the larger valuables in your home, Colonial Bank of Granite City has come up with a new idea, according to Donald E. Van Horn, president of the bank.

Colonial has just completed installation of four "vacation vaults" large enough to hold the television set and other valuables for families while they are on vacation.

Three of the vaults are 13 by 21 by 24 inches and the fourth is larger, measuring 38 by 21 by 24 inches. They will be leased on a short term basis only, but there is a wide selection of other types of safe deposit boxes on an annual lease arrangement, Van Horn said.

"Our special large vaults are perfect for storing jewelry, silverware, coin collections or anything you consider precious while you are on vacation or away from home for an extended period of time," Van Horn said.

He said the vacation vaults are not the first innovation Colonial Bank has introduced to the city. Others include a sit-down check counter and the first elevated drive-up unit.

"Colonial Bank will be celebrating its fifth anniversary the week of June 22," Van Horn said, inviting the public to watch the Press-Record for announcements of special activities and offers that week.

Charles W. Barth, III, M.D. of 18 Rivers Drive, Granite City, is stable continuing during the weekend recuperating from a head injury he suffered when an auto in which he was a passenger spun on Edwardsville Road at the railroad tracks, left the roadway and traveled approximately 25 feet on the tracks before coming to a stop last week.

Miss Wallace was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where she was admitted.
